

Newlands Will Leave For Hawaiian Mission in Laie

Mr. and Mrs. Wilford H. Newland of 22330 South Harvard, members of the Torrance Ward Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, have been called on a labor mission to the church's Hawaiian Mission in Laie, Oahu.

Newland will serve as electrical contractor for the L.D.S. Hawaiian college and will train workmen in building the new church school.

Mr. and Mrs. Newland, who have been residents of Torrance for sixteen years, plan to sail from San Francisco on November 18, and be gone for two or three years.

Newland has served as a bishop of the Torrance Ward for four years and has been a member of the Redondo Stake High Council.

Mrs. Newland was president of the Redondo Stake YWMA. The Newlands have four children: Mrs. Earl Daffron of St. Helens, Ore., Mrs. Jim Springer of Torrance, Mrs. Raymond Pierce of Fairbanks, Alaska, and Wayne Newland, who will head his father's electrical contracting business in his absence.

A farewell testimonial meeting was held for the couple followed by a reception.

Stake M.I.A. honored them at a Hawaiian Luau at the home of Dave Nichols in Palos Verdes, and Torrance Ward honored them at a dance on Monday

Choir Leader Appointed

Frank Owen has been appointed choral director to lead the vast choir that will sing the "Messiah" in this community Sunday, December 4, according to an announcement by Fred Lincoln, area manager for the choral event.

The Messiah will be sung at 4 p.m., at the First Lutheran church of Torrance, 2900 West Carson st., and will be one of approximately 65 presentations of Handel's noted oratorio to be presented simultaneously in Southern California that day.

This marks the 9th annual performance of the Messiah under co-sponsorship of the Church Federation of Los Angeles and the Southern California council of Protestant churches.

Outstanding choir singers from the Torrance-Lomita area will be included in the choral event, which will be presented

Set Emphasis On Youth

The WSCS of the First Methodist church will meet this morning, at 10 o'clock with a prayer service and a business meeting at 10:30.

Reverend Don Shelby, associate pastor, and Mrs. Dale Harter, chairman of youth work, will speak in the morning session on "Youth Emphasis."

'Mortals And Immortals' Text

That all may find their heritage as children of God is emphasized in the lesson-sermon on "Mortals and Immortals," given in the Christian Science churches Sunday. The Golden Text is from Romans (8:9), "Ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you."

Local branch of the Christian Science church is located at 1750 Manuel Ave.

without the charge of admission.

Frank Owen has been organist and choirmaster at St. Paul's Cathedral in Los Angeles for the past year, directing the boys and men's choir there.

He has directed the "Messiah" many times previously.

ing session on "Youth Emphasis."

Luncheon will be served at noon and at 1 p.m. the afternoon session will be in charge of Mrs. Maude Oharr.

The theme will be "Women and the Church through the Centuries."

Months of the Year Theme Of CDA Luncheon Decor

St. Catherine's Court, Catholic Daughters of America, featured taste, imagination, and wit at their luncheon last week.

The tables were done with centerpieces representing the months of the year.

The prize for the cleverest centerpiece was given to Mrs. John McVey. Her display for August was on the theme of "A Vacation in Hawaii."

The prize for the most original display went to Mrs. E. K. Cunningham and Mrs. Joseph Lucas for their January "March of Dimes" theme.

Other centerpieces were done by: Mrs. Dennis Flacy, February Valentine display; Mrs. Liam O'Brien, April Showers centerpiece; Mrs. William Davies, May Pole display; and Miss Joan Revell, June bridal theme.

The other displays were done by: Mrs. H. C. Sifers, July patriotic theme; Mrs. Frank Cavanaugh, September football theme; Mrs. Regis Jones, October Halloween theme, and Mrs. N. G. Wayward, December Christmas theme.

The chairman of the committee for the affair was Mrs. Gerald Revell.

Committee members were: Mrs. John McVey, Mrs. H. C. Sifers, Mrs. William Healy, Mrs. Don Cowden, Mrs. Frank Gajev, Mrs. E. K. Cunningham, and Mrs. William Hardesty.
