

Students Will Give Annual Dance Recital

The Phyllis Moore Dance Studios will present their annual dance recital at the Inglewood high school auditorium, Saturday evening, November 19, at 8 p.m.

Ballet numbers, tap and acrobatic dances will display the varied talents of the group.

A new ballet, "William Tell," choreographed by Phyllis Moore, will receive its first presentation on this evening.

"Swan Lake" and the "Bluebird" from "Aurora's Wedding," two favorites with ballet lovers, will also be presented.

A nursery rhyme sequence including "Blackbirds Baked in a Pie" and "Goldilocks and the Three Bears" are planned for the delight of the younger audience.

A "Garden in Ballet" will open the program, and an unusual modern tap number, "When the Saints Come Marching In" and "Slewfoot" are also on the program.

Tickets may be obtained from the studio, 4069 Redondo Beach boulevard.

To Present Verse-Drama

The Senior High M.Y.F. and the Wesley Fellowship youth groups of the First Methodist Church of Torrance will join in presenting to the final session of the School of Missions Sunday evening at 6:30 the verse drama, "THE BOMB THAT FELL ON AMERICA," by Herman Hagedorn. Originally written as a radio script, this poem speaks to the post-Hiroshima H-bomb stunned world.

Maneuvers

Army Sgt. Slyde E. Chansley, 23, whose wife, Doris, lives at 265005 South Cypress st., Lomita, recently took part in a field training exercise held by the 5th Infantry division in southern Germany.

A "Garden in Ballet" will open the program, and an unusual modern tap number, "When the Saints Come Marching In" and "Slewfoot" are also on the program.

Tickets may be obtained from the studio, 4069 Redondo Beach boulevard.

ON POINT... One of the featured dancers in the annual recital to be presented by the Phyllis Moore Dance Studios is Jean Perdue. The recital will be held at Inglewood high school on Saturday evening, November 19.
