YWCA Plans Candlelight Coffee Hour

The World Fellowship committee of the Torrance YWCA, under Mrs. Minnie Solomon met recently at the Y to plan the annual "Nations Christmas Festival."

The event is scheduled for Thursday, December 15, at 7:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m., at 2320 Carson st.

Mrs. Earl Cranston of Pasadena, a national board member of the Y, will be the speaker of the evening.

Y-Teens and various groups of the Y will participate by performing or by donating refreshments.

Many nationalities will be represented on the program in songs. The traditional "Pinata" and "Wassail Bowl," will be included.

Mrs. G. C. Van Deventer, of the American Field Service will have the three Foreign Students in Torrance, from Germany, Holland, and Spain, tell about Christmas time in their countries.

Invitations to the festival will be distributed about the first of December by various Service clubs, Y-Teens, and friends of foreign born members of the Y.

Anyone who has an authentic costume from another country is urged to wear it at the event, reported Mrs. P. M. Grossman.

The committee members present were: Mesdames C. Andrews, Philan Foley, J. Homolko, E. J. Nosking, W. C. Silence, Hanna Armagost, Miles Booth, Warren Hamilton, G. C. Van Deventer, Maud Obarra, J. V. Morris, Margaret Wilson, A. E. Palmer and P. M. Grossman.

FOOD SALE

The Fun and Fund club of Torrance Rebekah Lodge No. 347 will hold a food sale Saturday morning, November 19, in front of the Gay shop, 1319 Sartori.

Clemenger to Discuss Fun And Vacations

Torrance Elementary school P.T.A., Incorporated, will hold its regular monthly meeting tonight in the school auditorium at 7:30 p.m. The program will feature William Clemenger, faculty member of Torrance Elementary, in a talk on "Fun Time and Family Vacations."

Clemenger is a member of the noted Sierra club and will show some of his film slides made on various trips including the Fallbrook river trip, Yosemite and the California missions.

Mrs. Richard Magee, program chairman, has announced that children from her first grade class will present a Thanksgiving song.

The new Brownie Troop 1551, sponsored by Torrance Elementary P.T.A., will lead the pledge of allegiance. The P.T.A. wishes to thank all those kind people who attended their Halloween carnival and made it such a success, said Mrs. H. F. Heinlein, president. The money earned will certainly assist with the welfare work done by the P.T.A., but the most important factor in any affair of this kind is providing well-supervised entertainment for the children, she said.

Kindergarten and second grade mothers will be hostesses at the social hour tonight.

Food Giant Anniversary Celebration

Study in Style Reflects Each Fashion Need

Holiday fashions of gleaming satins and a froth of billowing skirts, suits tailored to the most exacting taste, cocktail dresses that are an excuse for a party in themselves, and sports clothes which looked as if they had come straight from the French Riviera were featured at the fashion show by Moore's Women's Wear of 1274 Sartori avenue, last week.

Professional models from the Jean Barnhardt School of Modeling, entered through the tropical gardens of the Fish Shanty, 4024 Pacific Coast highway, and circulated through the dining rooms, pausing to talk to diners interested in the fashions.

Models from the Barnhardt school represented all ages, from the teen-age model, Dinah Jones, to the mature model, Lillian Leigh.

People were so interested that many reserved the fashions of their choice that evening, rather than wait to come in to the store, reported Moore's.

3 AFSIS MEETINGS HELD HERE

AFSIS (American Field Service International Scholarships) held three meetings in this area last week, beginning with a luncheon at the home of Mrs. Donald Armstrong, 812 Via Conejo, Palos Verdes.

Attending the luncheon were Mesdames J. B. Mosley, chairman; F. Lane, M. M. Schwab, Dean Sears, Grover Van Deventer, Carl Lippincott, and Henry Graef.

Stephen Galatti, director general of AFSIS addressed both the Torrance and Palos Verdes chapters.

Following the luncheon another meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Graef attended by parents and members of the advisory board.

A regional dinner held in the Crenshaw district followed, attended by 181 people. A. L. Howell and Harry Dunn, regional co-representatives, and Galatti addressed the group.

The importance of proper home-placement and environment was emphasized and the

Mothers-to-be Will See Film On Training

"Preface to a Life, a film on child training which shows the effects of good and bad upbringing on a child's life, will be shown at the Torrance Expectant Mothers' class at the Torrance Health Center, 2300 Carson st., today at 1 p.m., according to Dr. B. A. Kogan, district health officer.

"Home, Safe Home," a film showing the common hazards about the home and giving suggestions for improving safety in the home, has also been booked for the same day.

Prospective mothers are invited to the class which is an educational service of the County Health department, said Dr. Kogan.

fact that this was primarily the function and responsibility of local chapters.

Indicating interest in the AFSIS program was Father Donald Braeh, principal of Junipero Serra high school, it was reported. Father Braeh attended the dinner meeting.

VICTORY DANCE . . . Completing plans for Nativity parish "Victory Dance" are: (l-r) John Gitschier, Mrs. Thomas Eager, Mrs. Fred Cameron, Mrs. Elles Cook, Mrs. Donald Franklin, Frank Kristufek, Mrs. Joseph Terkmany, and Mrs. David Hughes. The dance will be held on Saturday, December 3, at the civic auditorium.
