I AM A USED CAR

MR. MOTORIST
ANY STREET
TORRANCE, CALIF.

Dear Sir:

I am a used car.

Right now I am sitting here waiting for some lucky guy like you to buy me. Yeah! I said "Lucky Guy" because I think that I'm pretty darn good. But then, I guess, I'm not too different from most of my friends here.

You see I was born just about 13 months ago, and most Doc's say I have 10 or more years to go, that is if I take care of myself and so far that's what I've been doing. You see I've gone less than 12,000 miles & the doc who delivered me said I was good for well over 100,000 miles and I've kept out of trouble.

You know I feel just wonderful in the pink and I look pretty good too. If I do say so myself . . . I have full power, music, heater to keep you snug as a bug on these cold winter mornings. Beautiful 2-tone finish with matching leather interior. All most brand new white wall tires. Yes, I am a used car and I want a new home. I'm a real bargain for some guy, because another fellow has paid most of the freight. Brand new I cost $5700, but now I only cost $3595. All you need to take me home is 30% down & they will give you 30 months to pay with bank terms.

Oh, did you know that my brother was the master of the Pan-American road race for 3 years? I'm real proud of that. Won't you please come down and look me over. I know I'll make a real Christmas jewel for some lucky guy. Why not you?

VERY HOPEFULLY YOURS

MR. 1955 LINCOLN
(HARD TOP COUPE)

P.S.—I've got 40 brothers and cousins here and can you beat this. Everyone of those guys thinks he's better than me.

PPS—Almost forgot to tell you where I am
