pinned between the car seat and the top of the vehicle. While Gaul was trapped in the wreckage, Lt. Swayne Johnson, of the Torrance Police Department, climbed into the wreckage to make the trapped man as comfortable as possible. A physician, rushed to the scene by police, administered first aid and a drug to ease the pain. Gaul's car apparently went into a skid while traveling at a high rate of speed, according to police. The car engine was hurled from its mountings by the impact.

Delinquency...

on the subject, rather than trying to summarize the varied opinions expressed that evening.

First and foremost, he said, we are not reaching the people who need guidance. We are completely out of touch with them.

He proposed a realistic counseling and training program such as is used in Palo Alto.

There, youngsters and their parents are given an alternative when they get into trouble—either a jail sentence and fine or attending a training class.

He also called for more militant action against drinking which is the source of much anti-social behavior.

Thirdly, he called juvenile delinquency only a "cold sore," and pleaded that we get to "the fever that's causing it—the human heart."

"If youngsters don't respect us," he exclaimed, "we probably don't merit respect."

He called a number of reasons mentioned as the cause of juvenile delinquency that night "contributing factors" and a number of solutions good but not basic.

"Youngsters must be helped to develop moral fibre," he asserted. "Activities are not enough. Hitler 'activated' the German youth to death. We're doing by carelessness what Hitler, Stalin, and Mussolini did by law—they weakened the home and church and moulded the child."

men and women who gave so unselfishly of their time and effort on Sunday afternoon," said Richland. "Their acceptance of this responsibility reflects a very high level of dedication to the public welfare, and commands the admiration of this community."

"We are also grateful to the citizens of Torrance for their generosity in opening their doors and their hearts and their pocketbooks," he continued. "Once again it has been demonstrated that Torrance is keenly alert and responsive to the needs of humanity."

A major portion of all funds collected here will go to advance local and state heart programs, with the remainder being devoted to the support of research, education and community heart programs of the American Heart Association.

Realignment For Flood Channel Set

Realignment plans for sections of the Dominguez Channel have been made, said M. E. Salisbury, assistant chief engineer of the County Flood Control district.

Realignment proposed for this year will straighten the channel providing swifter flow of waters toward the harbor, thus cutting down the danger of flooding in populated areas.

Such action is being taken in view of the flooding which occurred here in January.

The complete channel improvement program will take several years, Salisbury told city officials during the recent tour of the flood control facility.

The full program includes widening and paving of the channel through the southeast section. Such rebuilding has already taken place in the northwest.

The entire program will cost an estimated $15 million, Salisbury said.

San Pedro Theatre Sets Play Tryouts

Tryouts for the San Pedro Arts association's forthcoming presentation, "Ten Nights In A Bar-Room," will begin Saturday, March 3, at the Cottage Playhouse, 550 West 5th St., San Pedro, at 7:30 p.m.

The long-familiar play, an old-style drama is one revamped into a comedy "mellow drammer" and requires a cast of seven men and four women. In addition, olio acts will be featured presenting an opportunity for those interested in singing, dancing, or doing short comedy routines.

Residents of Torrance and the Harbor area, are welcome to read for parts offered, or discuss their particular art or routine, said Sara Thomas, director.

Jean Collins Heads Zuanna

Khamsin Zuanna 127, Ladies of the Orient, held installation of officers at their regular meeting, at the YWCA building in Long Beach.

Hildur Kinder, deputy Great Ashayhi, and her deputy officers installed Jean Collins as Great Ashayhi, Dorothy Rogers, Queen Ashayhi; Carolina Bond, keeper of traditions; Irma Powers, collector of shekels; Gene Graham, keeper of shekels; Frances Beck, Oriental guide; and Maud Milburn, prelate.

The club will hold a social evening of games at the home of Olive Veatch, 2246 250th street, Long Beach, on Wednesday, March 7.

Thelma Forsythe was given the obligation and will be initiated at a later date, Mrs. Powers reported.

Everyone came dressed as hobos and brought their own sack lunch. A social hour followed the business meeting.

time, energy, and experience to the completion of the endeavor. Much of the result has been unpublicized, with no reward beyond the fulfillment of the dream of a better Torrance.

This award would serve as recognition for his unselfish munity service, unequalled devotion to his City and the welfare of its people—both for the year 1955 and the previous nineteen.

Dean L. Sears has served two different terms as president of the Chamber of Commerce, and has been a member of the board.

He was Torrance Kiwanis club 1955 finance chairman, Harbor District-Los Angeles Boy Scout council 1955 immediate past president, ex-officio member and advisor, Torrance Dental Health Program, 1955.

Plaque, Trophy
Presentation of the plaque and the perpetual William I. Laughon-Grover C. Whyte Memorial trophy were made by retiring president Paul Loranger.

Featured speaker for the evening was Henry Kearns, vice president of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce.

Loranger presented a president's report for 1955, while John A. Ebbinghouse, the new president, presented the officers and directors for 1956.

Dr. Gerald M. Eastham served as master of ceremonies.

Chamber officers include A. E. Thompson, first vice president; Arthur O. Otsea, second vice president; and R. S. Pyle, treasurer.

has been busy giving talks to other town hall meetings up and down the state, and during the month of March he will be giving in-service training to employees of the city and county of Los Angeles. This will be the third successive year that he has worked with the county on its recreation in-service training program lecturing on "Training Youth for Leadership, Leadership Techniques, Volunteers—Worthless or Wonderful, Principles, Programs and Pitfalls, and Community and Neighborhood Councils."

The only time he will speak to the public on the topic, "We Can Reduce Juvenile Delinquency," in Los Angeles county area, will be in Torrance, and a large turnout of civic minded citizens is expected. This is the second year that Solomon will speak here.

Heads Officer List for 267

Carol Reed heads the group of officers who will serve through June for Brownie Troop 267.

Paula Rowe is vice-president, Barbara Bruich, secretary, Susan Frost, treasurer, Pamela Dye, color bearer, and Judy McCoy and Carmen Calitria are color guards.

The troop is under the leadership of Mrs. Agnes Stevens and Mildred Rowe. Mrs. LaRue Wilson is assistant leader. The group is under the sponsorship of Halldale P.T.A.

The group has made Litter Bags for the beds at Harbor General hospital.

How To Buy A New Car

Don't be fooled by the "Volume Deal Low Cost" pitch. To sell cars in big volume is very expensive! The facts are it takes $100 per car for T.V., radio, etc., $30 per car overhead (rent, light, office help, etc.) and $85 in commissions and bonuses for high pressure salesmen and managers. This totals $215 actual cost per car for a "Volume Deal."

No matter what give-away or "Free Gimmick" the Volume Deal represents there has to be a profit on top of this $215 cost per car!

At T.L.M. our costs per car are ONLY $93 TOTAL! This is a difference of $122 in cash savings that we as a small dealer can and do pass on to you over any bona fide deal by the so-called Big Volume Dealer—We can prove it! See us today!
