Senior Play

North High's first senior class will present "Young April" as their class play in the Forrance high auditorium March 24. Some of the players include Ray Davis, Nora Cumnings, Joan Reed, Jim Powers, Eddie McNamara, Gerry Terhaggen, Judy Okada, Arry Willemsen, Bill Reeves, Jean Pasquerilla, Janice Sellers, Carole Fair, Johanne Parker, and Jeanne Shifferd. Understudies are Carole Sue Jackson, Linda Lawton, and Patti Buchholz.

Journalism Field Trip

Five of the North Wind editors took the day off March 7 to attend the 25th annual Journalism Day at Redlands University under the supervision of Advisor Topper Smith. Those hard working (?) journalists were Ann Rutledge, editor-inchief; Bonnie Williams, managing editor; Leila Santor, feature editor; Vickie Almedis, news editor; and Ardene Smith, business and circulation editor. They picked up many helpful suggestions for the betterment of the paper. Journalism I Takes Over

The journalism I class assumed the responsibility of putting out the last school paper while the journalism II class reacquainted themselves with the long forgotten journalism

Snoopin' Around

The twenty-five students who turned out for tennis this year were very disappointed when it was announced that the team was being disbanded because of the lack of tennis courts.

Coming soon is the first annual Sweethearts ball sponsored by the Saxon band. Don't miss this big event. Also the bake, on March 20-21, also sponsored by the band.

Pat Gilbert and Lee Zuever have been going steady for three weeks now.

Somebody has been doing a little match-making. Another new couple on campus now is Jeff Lindsey and Ceila Stinger. Also going steady and enjoying it are Sharon Rich and Tex Hughes.

Wonder what ever happened to Bruce Stinger and Catalina? The female population of North high has sure been taking advantage of leap year lately.
