Attend The Church of Your Faith

There are some essential institution in every community. Without these it would be a less desirable place to live. The church stands high on this list. There are churches in our area but surely they can be no stronger than the people who attend and become a part of this institution for God and for good.

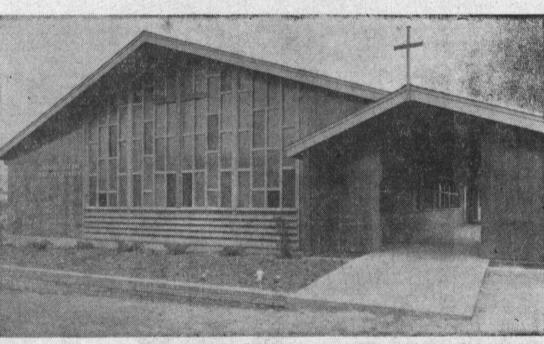

There are some essential functions of the church if it is to take its rightful place in this community. I have the good fortune of being pastor of the Narbonne Avenue Baptist Church in Lomita. We cooperate with 29,000 other churches to make up the Southern Baptist Convention.

One essential is fulfilled in having a church sanctuary that fronts on Woodward to make it an ideally quiet place to worship. Two worship services are required to care for the people who attend the morning service. Duplicate services are held at 8:30 and 11:00. Mr. Henry Link said, "The family that prays together stays together."

Another essential is met in the Bible teaching time. This is being fulfilled in the Sunday School which begins at 9:45 each Sunday morning. At present over 800 are enrolled and are taught by over 80 volunteer teachers and other workers. The Theme of the Sunday school is "Take your family to Sunday school." There is a place for every member of the family, from the smallest child to the oldest adult. General Douglas McArthur is quoted Rev. Robert A. Wells as saying, "No man can consider himself as being educated-until he has studied the Bible." Yet another essential is to provide adequately for every age group. The church should and is concerned about the individual from the cradle to the grave. A nursery is provided for the three year olds and under during all services. Social as well as teaching activity is provided for every age group. With a graded choir program the various age groups have an opportunity to sing. Even a play night is set aside by the church when the young people have an opportunity to play. The church softball team of young men has gone undefeated for the past two years. They have twice won the championship trophy for the Lomita-Harbor City League at the Lomita Park. We are fortunate to have two full time workers as well as the pastor. These two, Rev. Edward Smith and Miss Ruby Lee Hill spend a major part of their time directing these activities in our church life.

NARBONNE AVENUE BAPTIST CHURCH 24730 NARBONNE AVE., LOMITA

We feel it is the responsibility to make every effort to make it convenient for all to worship God. It is our desire to help make the community a better place to live. Because of the importance of the church in any place where people live we want to be a part in this essential part of our community.

Everyone will be welcome to worship with us at any service. ROBERT A. WELLS, Pastor
