

Teachers, Mrs. Guy Adams and Mrs. James Moeller, Named Life Members

Mrs. Guy Adams, music teacher, and Mrs. James Moeller, A6 teacher, received Honorary Life Memberships at the Founders Day celebration held by Halldale school PTA. Mrs. Adams and Mrs. Moeller have been members of the PTA and teachers at Halldale since the school opened in September, 1948.

Honorary Life Membership is the highest honor the Parent-Teacher organization can bestow on an individual. This honor was conferred on the teachers in recognition of their long and outstanding service to Halldale children, said Mrs. T. C. Myron.

Mrs. T. C. Myron, Honorary Life Membership chairman, summarized the objects of the Honorary Life Membership fund and presented the recipients with their pins.

Highlighting this occasion was the presentation of the "PTA Mikado."

Play Review
"Gilbert and Sullivan were notoriously quarrelsome, but they'd not likely have quarreled with the Halldale PTA presentation," reported Mrs. Wayne H. Vinson.

"From the opening chorus the Mother-singers caught the spirit of the piece and impressed their audience with the zest of a professional comic opera company," she said. "Although it wasn't D'Oyley Carte, it was a la carte, a pick of the best," she concluded.

Mrs. William L. Wilson, Founders' Day chairman said all of the cast were new to the production.
