

Local Poet Presents Her New Volume To Library

Two copies of the recently published volume of poetry, "Listen! I Dream," by Stella Isenhower Flewelling, are now available at the Torrance Public Library, Mrs. Dorothy Jamieson, head of the library announced.

The local poet, in private life, Mrs. Willace Flewelling of 1314 Elm, has been a resident of Torrance for the past 15 years. She presented the copies of her book to the Torrance library recently.

"Although her book is on sale at the Torrance Bible Book and Gift shop, I'm certain that Mrs. Flewelling's many friends and admirers will be happy to know that copies are also at the library," said Mrs. Jamieson.

"The library is pleased and proud to have the book of a local poet," Mrs. Jamieson concluded.

The Night Will Be Filled With Dancing

Many of the gayest social notables in town will be dancing this Saturday night, March 24.

This is no bulletin from a crystal ball, but a fairly accurate prediction viewed in the light of the membership lists of the Triple-T, Sobadas, and Los Fiesta-dores dance clubs.

These nimble members will gather for their second annual Combined Dance to be held at the Mayflower Ballroom in Inglewood this Saturday.

Cocktails will be served from 8 until 9 p.m. and then the dancing will begin to the music of Frank James' orchestra.

When the tireless dancers decide to stop, breakfast will be available.

Representatives from the three clubs served on the committee to plan the affair.

The committee from Sobadas are Mr. and Mrs. Swayne Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Lee.

Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Bauman, Mr. and Mrs. John Tweedy, Dr. and Mrs. John Larson, and Dr. and Mrs. Eugene Cook represent Triple-T.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Hamilton and Dr. and Mrs. Phillip Halloran represent Los Fiesta-dores.

Women of Moose Plan Easter Hunt

There will be an Easter egg hunt for children of members of the Moose Lodge on Saturday, March 31, at 10 a.m., at the Moose hall on Carson, the Women of the Moose announced.

Only children 12 years old and younger are eligible to participate, reported Helen Benton.

On the evening of March 31 there will be a Women of the Moose card party. Officers of the Moose chapter are in charge.

All the prizes will be hand made and potato salad, sandwiches and coffee will be served.

The party is open to the public.

Over 100 delegates attended the California Moose Association Mid-Winter Conference held in Redding.

Delphians Set Seminar on Communism

The Delphian society will meet this morning, March 22, at 10 a.m., at the Public Library, Cravens and Post, to discuss "The Basis of Russian Communism."

The purpose of this seminar is to achieve an understanding of the events, conditions, and teachings which led to present-day Communism in Russia.

The discussion will be led by Mrs. H. M. Davis. The opening points will be made by Mrs. R. MacNicol, Mrs. J. N. Hawkins, Mrs. W. G. Smith, Mrs. J. M. Stewart, and Mrs. F. W. Van Oppen.

Dr. Allen Pyeatt gave the invocation at the recent Delphian district assembly meeting held in the grand ballroom of the Beverly Hilton hotel. Mrs. Pyeatt is the auditor of the District Assembly.

Others attending the assembly meeting were: Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. R. MacNicol, and Mrs. F. W. Van Oppen.
