Franklin Returns From Washington

Back from Washington, where he was able to hold meetings with top government leaders, 17th District Congressional candidate, Charles A. Franklin, has begun active campaigning for the June 5 primary election.

The Westchester resident and insurance broker met with Vice President Richard M. Nixon, U.S. Senator Thomas Kuchel and top party leaders to completely acquaint himself with the issues pertinent to the Southland area in the coming election.

Franklin is a family man, veteran and businessman in the district where he is campaigning. He holds degrees in law and engineering and boasts a top service record where he rose from enlisted man to officer.

Terminating his meetings in the capitol "highly successful," Franklin has returned to his campaign headquarters at 185 N. Hawthorne Boulevard, Hawthorne, to lay plans for his campaign and book engagements for public appearances in the surrounding area.

Lomita And Narbonne To Get Signals

Plans and specifications for the installation of fully activated traffic signals at Lomita boulevard and Narbonne avenue were approved Tuesday by County Supervisor Burton W. Chace.

Chace's motion to the Board of Supervisors further instructed the County Road Commissioner to immediately advertise for bids for the installation of the signals.

Chace said that the signals were vitally necessary because the widening of Lomita boulevard "is greatly increasing the flow of traffic in this busy sector of the county."

Lake Enchanto in the Malibu mountains hills will be the scene for the senior trip this Friday.

The 100 members of the class of '56 will enjoy sports such as boating, hiking, swimming, and horseback riding. That evening they will attend a dance in their honor.

Looking Ahead
 Coming soon is the spring concert presented by the music department.

The freshman dance, "Dreamers Delight," will be held in the Civic Auditorium May 19.

Tryouts for Majorettes were held last Tuesday, however, results were not available at this time.

Snoopin' Around
 A surprise birthday party was given for Jeff Lindsey on his sixteenth birthday by Celia Stinger last Saturday. Those present were Mike Schneider and Shera Gazay, Bob McHugh and Leila Santor, Terry Baker and Bonnie Williams, Bob Walker, Julia Pace, Julia Widmark, Steve Harper, Rosemary Frances, Eurschal Ward, Gale Rogers, Bruce Stinger and Sharon Hitchcock and Gene Horwitz.

Starting next week I will appear on a weekly news broadcast over KNHS. Be sure and listen for all the latest happenings.
