El Camino Graduation Activities Announced

Plans for baccalaureate and commencement programs of El Camino college were released today by President Forrest G. Murdock.

Baccalaureate services will be conducted in the Campus Theater Sunday, June 10, at 7:30 p.m., with the Rev. John Stewart of the First Presbyterian church of Inglewood speaking on the subject "Marching Off the Map."

Opening the program will be a series of numbers by Mary Ann DeNunzio, organist. She will play "Priere a Notre Dame" (Boellman), "Grand Choeur" (Salome), "Communion" (Purvis), and "Fugue in G. Minor" (Bach).

A choral selection, "O Thou, in Whose Presence" (Lewis) will be presented by the El Camino college combined choirs under the direction of R. Neil Hill. Kay Haga will accompany.

Bishop Gerald Kennedy will present the address at commencement exercises which will be conducted in the college stadium at 4 p.m. Friday, June 15.

Degrees will be awarded by Jack N. Dabbs, president of the college board of trustees.

Torrance students completing their work for the degree of associate of arts are: Margaret L. Ament, Leroy H. J. Arnold, Donald Henry Babbitt, John Charles Babbitt, Betty Lou Bailie, Cecil Andrew Barnett, Thomas J. Baron, Long J. Blunt, John Ernest Bosch, Edward Glyn Boyce, Phyllis D. Carothers, Dora Lee A.
