Saturday, June 16, has been set aside as a special day for the youngsters. Starting at 12 noon, 800 free ride tickets will be given away to children under 12.

The local organizations who will have concession booths on the Midway are: Torrance Junior Women's club, North Torrance Civic Improvement Association, Torrance Police Car club, Torrance Citizens, Torrance Fireladies, Torrance Jayettes, Torrance Women of the Moose, and the Non-Commissioned Officers club of the Torrance National Guard.

Elliott Nohr, Jaycee Fair chairman, and his committee have worked hard to make this year's third annual fair a successful one and one they hope the local residents will enjoy.

any of the formal hearings. This, the complaint maintains, should leave the issue up to a council quorum, namely Mayor Isen, and Councilmen Nick Draie and Willys Blount.

The complaint further maintains that the city charter contains no provision regarding the power or procedure for adopting or enforcing zoning ordinances.

The three councilmen have been cited to appear at Armstrong's office for a disposition but have indicated that they will refuse to answer any and all questions pertaining to the controversy on grounds that public officials should not be subjected to cross-examination and that they are only responsible to the voters as to their conduct in office, unless a court orders such an examination. In that case, they would comply.
