Is Lovely In Full Bloom

An acre of flowers in full bloom is a wonderful sight to Young, third and Christine behold, especially when the Brown third. plants include about 500 different varities of Iris in all colors of the rainbow. This breathtaking array of flowers may be seen in the garden of Mr. and Mrs. F. Stone, 4010 Spencer st.

"People have been coming to see our garden for many years," 'commented Mrs. Stone. "In it third. you will find the Oncocylus, the orchid-iris of Palestine; the hardy Regelias of Turkestan; the Strathmore from England, which was personally selected by H. M. Queen Mother Elizabeth, and named after her own Brown, home; the exotic April Iris, from Mt. Giloa, north of Jerusalem; and the beautiful Butterfly Wings among other varieties. The lovely Lathario proved lyn Wudzke, second; Mrs. John herself queen of the garden."
