Maureen McManus Wed To Giacomo Martin Saturday

A radiantly lovely bride, Miss Maureen Olivia McManus, walked down the aisle of Nativity Catholic church to be joined in marriage to Giacomo Phillip Martin at nine o'clock mass on Saturday morning, June 23.

Beautifully gowned in imported chantilly lace and nylon tulle over satin, the bride also wore an illusion veil held in place by a pearl tiar. She carried a white prayer book, a gift from the groom, and a cascade of gardenias and stephanotis.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pat K. McManus of 3510 228th st., was escorted to the altar by her father. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Martin, of California, Pennsylvania.

Father Patrick McGuinness officiated at the ceremony. The bride was attended by her sisters, Patricia and Lou, who were dressed respectively in orchid net over taffeta, carrying yellow carnations, and yellow net over tafetta, carrying orchid carnations. The bride's mother wore a gown of white lace over pink satin, a pink hat and gloves, and carried an orchid corsage.

Attending the bridegroom were Floyd McGurk, as best man, and Kevin McManus, the bride's brother, and Mal Nestlerode, uncle, as ushers. Soloist, Harry Hamilton, sang "O Beautiful Mother" and "Ave Maria." The church was beautifully decorated with white flowers at the altar and in the aisle post baskets, and a white runner was spread from the door to the altar.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church hall. Open house was held at the home of the bride's parents for the remainder of the day. The newlyweds left for Pennsylvania, where they plan to stay a couple of weeks. Their plans after their return to California are at this time indefinite.

The new Mrs. Martin is a graduate of Torrance High school, class of '56, and her husband graduated from El Camino at the same time.
