Earns Wings

Army Pvt. John B. Bunting Jr., whose parents live at 21717 Evalyn ave., Torrance, recently was graduated from the 82d Airborne Division's Jump School at Fort Bragg, N. C. Bunting received his parachutist's wings after completing the three-week course, which included five training jumps. Bunting entered the Army last November and completed basic training at Fort Ord. He attended North high school.

Rusth Will Head EC Students

Already meeting to plan student activities for the fall semester are members of the El Camino College student council, headed by Dick Rusth, newly elected student body president.

Rusth, a 25-year-old pre-law major from Manhattan Beach, won his office in one of the most heated elections in the history of the college. Competing with candidates representing the two organized political groups on campus, the Warriors for Representative Government and the JETS, Rusth ran as an independent. Married, Rusth has two children. With his partner, John Fraser, he was a championship debater on the El Camino College forensics team this year.

Elected to serve with Rusth on the Student Council this year were Maggie Tate, Inglewood, vice-president; Jerry Walsh, Inglewood, president of the Associated Men Students; Jackie Pagac, Torrance, president of the Associated Women Students; Thomas Gephart, Hawthorne, commissioner of athletics; J. P. van Ettinger, Hermosa Beach, commissioner of publications; Donald Erickson, Inglewood, commissioner of assemblies; Richard Dangel, Inglewood, commissioner of finance; Don Delaney, Manhattan Beach, commissioner of public relations, and Al Jorgensen, Inglewood, commissioner of rallies.

Presidents of the sophomore and freshmen classes, to be elected early during the fall semester, will also be seated on the council.

Other election posts went to Jeanette La Voie, Hawthorne, AWS vice-president; Pat Nimrod, Lawndale, AWS treasurer; and Gretchen Schoener, Inglewood, AWS secretary.

Officers elected to AMS posts with Walsh are Glen Goodwin, Hawthorne, vice-president; Tony Leon, Redondo Beach, secretary, and Mac Prior, Hermosa Beach, treasurer.

National Toured By Graduates

Open house day was held recently at the Torrance plant of the National Supply company for June graduating sons and daughters of company employees.

Twelve graduates from Torrance and other local high schools were greeted by J. D. Spalding, works manager, in the employees' club room, after which the guests toured the plant for observation of plant manufacturing and processing departments.

The tour began with a look at the steel making department and proceeded through the laboratory, machine departments, welding, forging, engineering and pay roll departments. Lunch in the plant cafeteria was served at noon.

Invitations for this visit were extended to graduates as an aid to career selection and the first hand observation of job opportunities in local industry. Young men and women in the visiting group included: Gloria Willoughby, Joanne Hall, Alice Carpenter, June Moore, Robert Faff, Ronald Oaks, Estill Broughton, Ronald Waller, Richard Somer, John Bertelson, Louis Lisoni III, Beverly Sowle.
