the Cross ? ? ? Why do we read our children the funnies, but never the Bible ? ? ? Why do we fret and fume so much over our child's tummy ache, but give very little thought about their spiritual heart-ache ? ? ?

When all the noise and the clanging of the day fades away and is replaced by the relentless ticking of the passing of time, we know through the Holy Spirit that we must humble ourselves, confess our sin and through the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ hear the words of forgiveness. In this joy-filled land of beginning again through faith in Jesus Christ we know that neglect of church attendance a God's word leads to spiritual malnutrition, poverty and death. In the wonderful fellowship of the believers we know that God is not dead for we talk to Him through Christ several times a day. May this big, living and eternal God give us the humility to confess our sin and through the Holy Spirit give us the faith to lay hold of His holiness and so to rejoice in the forgiveness, the love, and the righteousness of Jesus Christ our Saviour.

When any nation thinks God is dead, they can only look forward to destruction and crying in the night. Why then do we, who have been so richly blessed, insist on living like He were dead or at best were a big fat uncle with a couple of beers under his belt who winks at sin. We call ourselves a Christian nation and a Christian community, but there are a few questions we must ask! Why do we spend so much time planning a trip to the moon, but we never go next door to talk to a man about salvation through Jesus Christ ? ? ? Why do we bow down before the altar of the dollar and bigness, but seldom before the altar of the Lord ? ? ? Why do we join everything that comes along, but hesitate to join Christ and His Church ? ? ? Why do we know so much Rev. Maynard V. Midthun about growing, but so little about growing in
