

National Little League Picks All Star Team

The All Star team of the National Little League has been picked for 1956 and will play their first game at the East Lakewood Little League park on Saturday, July 28, at 2 p.m. It was announced today.

The season's play for the league ended last Sunday. The champions in the local series are the Yankees, managed by Jack Markley. The Stars, managed by Al Whelan, came in second. Third place went to the Cards, managed by Art Campbell, with the Braves, managed by Gordon Smith trailing.

The All Star team is made up of members from all four teams. They are as follows.

Yankees: Bruce Smith, Stephen McGuire, Howard Taylor, Terry Greason and Clifford Crain.

Stars: Newell Robison, Larry Anderson, Felix Alvilar and Dick Battaglia.

Cardinals: Terry Soth, Jock Caganan, Ray Wilson and Ronnie Campbell.

Braves: Pete Moore.

The season win-lose standing of each team is: Yanks, 15 wins, 6 losses; Stars, 14-17; Cards, 11-10; and Braves, 18-2.

Chosen outstanding rookie of the year was 10-year-old Steve Waters of the Braves. With two more seasons of Little League play ahead of him, he earned the eighth highest batting average, tied Ray Wilson for the third ranking home run hitter, and has five round-trippers to his credit this season.
