

Rebekah Paper Drive Under Way

The vice grand of the Torrance Rebekah lodge, Mrs. Maude Milburn, Mrs. Alice Jennings and other members have been busy on a project of their own in gathering paper and in gathering paper and rags to be sold.

To date the amount of paper collected and sold amounts to 24,000 pounds and the amount of rags is over 750 pounds. They plan a more extensive coverage of territory to gather the paper.

Anyone wishing to assist in this cause may contact Mrs. Clara Woodson, of 1837 Neptune ave., Wilmington, TA, 4-1446; or, in San Pedro, please call, Mrs. Inez Covich, TA, 6-270, 1141 Leland place; or, in Torrance, Mrs. Olea Brown, 8035 Middlebrook road, DA, 6-2876 or Mrs. Belva Brase, 2435 Border ave., FA, 8-7216.

FALL FEATURES EMPIRE LINES AND PENCIL-SLIM SKIRTS

With the effervescence of fall coming to the fore— we ladies are about to wonder just what is cooking in the way of styles. Certainly during the month of September we can still wear our cottons providing the weather is right.

But as fall rolls around who doesn't like to make the rounds of a few stores just to get an idea as to what the lovely new fall styles are like.

Furthermore, this is just about the time of year when we inspect our wardrobes and like to find out just what is missing in the way of a smart looking dress—one that you can wear just about anywhere.

One thing for sure that you will find in the fall styles is the "boy look" which gained such impetus in gals' leisure fashions in the summertime. It now appears ready to sweep the girls' dress circles this fall.

Man-tailored shirts, blazer jackets, sports car coats, soft pleated panels alternating with slim flat surfaces—these are just some of the coming fall styles.

And some of the dressier types are the empire lines which stress high-placed belts, unpressed back pleats, gently nipped-in waists, often with velvet trims. And one of these little numbers can be found at Moore's Women's Wear located on Sartori ave.

Designed by Mike Levine of New York, it looks like wool but is made entirely of cotton—light as a feather and feels warm as wool when it's on. It has a crew-neckline with a look-like vest insert trimmed with black velvet and a high empire waist to create that pencil-slim look. Shiny jet black buttons are at just the right places.

These dresses come in the smartest of all colors—fall black with a grayish tint and are priced for any budget ($29.99). You can wear this little dress to the office, afternoon engagements or put a perk little black velvet hat on your head and feel glamorous for that big date. And don't forget those little white gloves by Harm's, which stretch to fit any size, they are open stock—so if you lose one you can always go back and buy the one you lost.

Moore's also features those flattering, fashionable and always in style little Darleen Minklamb sweaters with the dyed-to-match skirts by Tami and Frank Lee.

These coordinates are matched in the most luscious of colors such as Flamingo, Blue Bell, Sunburst, Amber Glow, White and Mushroom. Sweater styles consist of the envelope neck, roll type cardigan and the mockturtle slip-on. Washing these sweaters is a breeze, the shape stays just right without blocking, fuzzing is no problem.

The clarinet-slim skirt colors take an encore. They are an all wool flannel, style in a rhythm of fullness or comes in a pencil-fit with a pleated back that leaves you plenty of room for walking.

These little dyed-to-match separates range in price from $5.99 to $15.99.

The Fire Circle at the Lomita park was the place for the July meeting of Pack 723C on Friday, July 27, at 6 p.m. Over 65 Cubs and their families held a weenie roast prior to the giving of awards.

Cubmaster Lee Polick was assisted by Pete White in presenting honors to Michael Hughes, Edward Foster, Ricky Branch, Billy Engstrom, Gene McKinley, and Larry Helphand.

Miss Donna Wolf Betrothed In Double Ring Ceremony

Miss Donna Pat Wolf, in a setting of beauty and simplicity became the bride of Richard Joseph Gazeley, in an evening ceremony, August 4, at St. Peter's Episcopal church.

A reception followed immediately after the wedding. Over 500 guests were present.

Miss Wolf was a vision of loveliness in her white tulle over taffeta, tiny pleats at the neck that looked like a draped effect, and short sleeves. Her skirt was fashioned of white tulle over taffeta—bouffant in style. Dainty pleats were used at the bottom of the dress to match the neckline. She wore a finger-tip veil held up by a Juliet type headpiece. Her bouquet was made up of phalaenopsis and a white orchid on a small white Bible.

She was given away by her father, Don B. Wolf, in a double ring ceremony.

The maid-of-honor, Miss Judy Wolf, wore a coral crystalline dress very full with matching accessories. And her hat was of a pill-box style worn with a veil. Her bouquet consisted of a pink cascade of gladiolus.

Bridesmaids were Miss Barbara Gay and Miss Martha Jean Kelly. They wore identical dresses of pink crystalline with pill box hats and veils attached. Their bouquet was a coral cascade of gladiolus.

Best man was Ronald Farish and ushers were Robert Gazeley, Paul Gazeley, Jerry Jeffery, Dan Montgomery, Robert Wolf.

The bride's mother looked lovely in her pink lace with pink accessories. The groom's mother wore a light grey lace over pink with dark blue accessories.

Miss Wolf formerly of 21804 Halldale avenue, Torrance, graduated from Narbonne high school and attended University of California, Santa Barbara, where she received her B.A. in political science.

Richard Gazeley spent four years in USN and was discharged last spring. He formerly lived with his parents at 22540 Vermont avenue.

The newlyweds are planning to continue their education at Long Beach State this fall.

Their honeymoon consisted of a wonderful week at Catalina. They plan to reside at 22227 St. Vermont avenue.
