great freedoms. Communism does not believe the Gospel of Christ. So you can stand against that wicked system by taking a stand for The Gospel of Jesus Christ. There is only one Gospel, and it is both social and personal. The Gospel offers redemption to the whole man, "for it is the power of God UNTO SALVATION to everyone that believeth." We see that it is the power of God unto salvation, only when it is believed. The apostle Paul says, "The preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness, but to us which are saved it is the power of God." (I Corinthians 1:18). J. N. Darby writes, "All philosophy is a perfect delusion; intellect has nothing to do with God at all. Faith is never in the intellect; and, what is more, the intellect rever knows a truth. Truth is not the object of intellect, but of testimony. This is where the difference lies. You tell me something and I believe you, but the thing that receives truth (on a testimony) is not intellect. Real intelligence of God is in the conscience. The mind is incapable of forming an idea of God, and that is where the philosophers have all gone wrong."

The Gospel of Christiwas the home of Paul's preaching. It was this Gospel of which he was not ashamed. So let us look at the Apostle's own definition of the Gospel he believed and preached. We know that "All scripture is given by inspiration of God," (II Tim. 3:16), so we can readily accept this definition as final. It is given in I Corinthians

- 15: 1-8. Simply stated, it is: 1. "Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures."
 - 2. "He was buried and rose again the third day according to the scriptures."
 - 3. "He was seen of both individuals and groups of people after his resurrection.

This is the Gospel. Paul was not ashamed of it. He preached it and believed it, and lived it. How about you? How about me? We can testify our belief by active attendance in our churches whose message is the Gospel of Christ.

FRANK H. PETERS, Minister By attending church, we give evidence that we take a stand against the enemics of our faith, and even the enemies of our The Gospel of Christ is not another philosophy. The Gospel of Christ is not enhanced by intellect, or personal magnetism. The Gospel of Christ is pure and simple, THE MESSAGE OF CHRIST CRUCIFIED, DEAD, BURIED, AND RISEN, which, being believed, is "the power of God!"

We go to church to worship God. Our forefathers purchased for us this privilege. Early Christians by example worshipped together. (Acts 2:42). To worship in fellowship with other believers is the admoniton of scripture. (Hebrews 10:25). By failing to go to church, we admit that our belief in God and The Gospel of Christ is not a genuine belief. (Jude 19).
