Fashion Notes

By NORMA MATTAUCH

BLACK IS AS BLACK DOES FOR THE FALL!

From the standpoint of smartness, and wearability, panels of contrasting black is a signature of fall.

Black is such—strong fashion this fall, it often appears in two or even three contrasting fabrics on the same dress. A dull surface with a shiny one, a soft texture with a crisp one; these are recurring motifs. Combinations are endless, as satin sets off wool, jersey combines with broadcloth, chiffon pairs with crepe, and taffeta even takes a dash of velvet.

With no restrictions as the one time of day wear, the black-with-black ensemble is developed for the all day wear, as well as for after five. The importance of the 'slim look-trim look' narrow silhouettes of the season, the contrast of at least two different blacks adds interest to the long, lean lines.

Shopping around Torrance—and to be specific—I mean shopping at Sam Levy's located on Sartori ave., I found this contrasting combination being featured in his line of Pat Premo of California designs.

The Empire silhouette again stars, in a sophisticated wool jersey sheath, dramatic touches of exquisite embroidery, high waisted crushed satin cummerbund that binds tightly, cuffs trimmed with satin that can be worn three-quarter length or pushed-up. Neckline in back is moderately low. The way it fits? Beautifully! It's just as the label says, Pat Premo.

To top it off . . . we wear black velvet accessories: A little pouch of satin velvet lining, the clasp being an old-fashioned jewel like Rosette; gloves gathered at the wristline-scalloped with a tiny jet bead along the edge.

If you have any fashion problems or if you would like to know where to find certain styles that you are looking for, call or write to Torrance Press, 1406 Cravens ave., FA. 8-2345, attention Norma Mattauch, women's editor.

Tryouts Set For Stage Production

Accent Theatre announces that tryouts will be held for their next play "The Women" on Tuesday and Thursday, September 11 and 13. Readings will be held under the direction of Stan Johnson at the old Four-Square Gospel Church bldg., 1207 El Prado, starting at 8 p.m.

"The Women" is an outstandingly successful satirical comedy by Clare Boothe Luce. It is an immensely entertaining panorama of our modern metropolitan world from the feminine viewpoint.

The play is quite novel since it involves a cast of 35 women (no men) and a large number of scenes. For these reasons, it is very rarely given and thus Torrance will have a fine treat in store when this play is staged locally in November.

With the large cast requirement, all types of roles are

'Let's Get Acquainted' PTA Theme

"Progress Through Health and Education" is the new theme for the coming year's program for Carl Steele elementary school's PTA.

The program committee headed by Mrs. A. D. Hawkins met to complete the program for this year.

Board members attending were Mmes. J. R. Erving, president, D. K. Crockett, E. S. Barackman, and G. C. Fowler.

The first official PTA meeting is scheduled for October 11, 7:30 p.m. in the Carl Steele school auditorium. The slogan for the evening will be "Let's Get Acquainted" and the meeting will be sparked by a guest speaker.
