

Teenagers Return with Happy Camp Memories

This summer will be long remembered by 73 Harbor area teenage girls who before camp closes, will have spent at least one period at YMCA Camp Taquitz Meadows.

Memories of a typical camp program of hiking along nature trails, cook-outs, horseback riding, crafts, games of volleyball, tennis, and baseball, archery practice, swimming, campfires, and worship will remain long after summer is gone.

To some this has been a first time away from home. To some (38) this was their first time at camp. To others who during the year must help take care of large families, while the mother works, this has been a rare chance for recreation. For all it has been an opportunity to meet and know girls from other towns, girls with different backgrounds from their own. It has been an experience of working, playing, living together.

"This camping season has been marked by the opening of a new pool and shower rooms, which has added a great deal to the camp," Mrs. Larry Lightner, chairman of the Southern California Camping Council stated. "This has been our finest season. While the official summer camping period will close August 28, the camp is kept open throughout the year for both the YMCA and other groups wishing to use the facility," she concluded.

Girls who attended camp this summer from Torrance area were: Teresia St. Germain, Sharon St. Germain, Barbara Sandusky, Alice Navarro, Gloria Munoz, Claudia Meave, Joan Kretzschmar, Bonnie Denton, Mary Ann Bremgartner, Anna Bignal, Suzanne Lynch, Lynn Barrett, Patricia Albright, Colleen McCurdy, Margaret McConnell, Christine Prather, Judith

The Torrance Area Youth Band has agreed to add the musical touch to the annual benefit affair, and a surprise star has been selected as master of ceremonies.

Taylor reminded everyone that letters nominating people for the 1956 Good Neighbor Award are invited, and should be mailed to the YMCA at 2080 Washington ave. before October 22. Taylor heads the committee which chooses the recipient of this annual honor.

The Good Neighbor Breakfast will be held in the Civic Auditorium on Saturday, October 27, and all proceeds will go toward building improvements at the present YMCA.

ADDRESS CHANGES

Old-age and survivors insurance beneficiaries should notify the social security administration immediately upon change of address, say officials of the administration. They indicate that delay in doing so may mean a delay in receiving benefit checks.
