Annual Flag Foothill Program Set

With football in the air, the recreation department is starting its annual flag football program this week. This program is geared for after school, evening, and Saturday sessions. Personnel are now on the areas ready to register any teams which are interested in participation.

The areas open are McMaster park, Torrance park and Walteria park.

McMaster park is open for the North Torrance area. It is headed by Les Breitenfeldt. Torrance park is under the tutelage of Harris Moore. This park is open for the Central Torrance area. Walteria park carded for by Coach Lloyd Harline. Any boy attending elementary school in any of these sections are urged to start a football team and report to their park and get acquainted.

Parents are urged to register as coaches. This program is set up to present football to youngsters of all ages in a safe, thrilling and interesting manner.

A senior league is under consideration. Any older boy of high school and junior college ages, not participating on a school team is requested to contact one of the above named playground directors. Directors are at the parks between 4 and 9 p.m.

Sports News

Warriors Will Meet Seahawks

Metropolitan conference play gets under way Friday, when the El Camino football Warriors take Harbor JC on the Seahawks' turf.

Kickoff time is 2 p.m. Friday night, defending champions, Valley JC, plays the East LA JC gridlers, and then on Saturday night Long Beach CC hosts Santa Monica city college while Bakersfield entertains the Knights from San Diego.

Metropolitan Conference football teams are loaded this year. In 16 non-conference tilts, the Metro squads have compiled 13 wins against only three losses.

Long Beach, which has won only one conference tilt in the last two years, has looked powerful in its two victories over Modesto, 34-25, and Santa Ana JC, 20-6.

Even Santa Monica, a team that was a pushover last season, while winning only one Metro tilt, shows signs of being a strong defensive unit in its two blank jobs over Ventura, 20-0, and Sacramento, 32-0.

Valley has wins over San Mateo, 32-7, and Glendale, 20-13. Harbor JC has beaten San Bernardino, 7-6, and rolled up an impressive 46-7 victory over a Porterville JC eleven. El Camino also has a clean record with wins over Los Angeles, 20-13, and Modesto, 13-0.

Bakersfield lost in its first outing against top-rated Compton, 27-0, but came back in its second non-conference tilt to edge Hartnell, 20-13. East Los Angeles looked good in its 20-0 victory over Fresno, but fell apart, 13-8, against a fast running Pasadena squad.

The San Diego squad gave a good account of itself in its 13-0 whitewash job over Fullerton, but dropped a tough one to underdog Phoenix, 7-6.

The Harbor-El Camino game could very well be billed as Dehlinger versus Paculba. Bob Dehlinger, El Camino halfback, has scored three touchdowns for the Warriors, while the Seahawk sensation, Ed Paculba, also leads his team's attack with four TD's, one a 71-yard dash that iced the victory over San Bernardino, 7-6.

Dehlinger scored his three touchdowns on passes from Quarterback Larry Manly in the 20-13 defeat of Los Angeles CC. Manly broke his collarbone in the Modesto tilt and will probably be out of action for the season.

Coach Norm Verry may well depend heavily on Frank Olson to lead the Warriors' attack for the coming Metro tilts. Olson came in late in the third quarter against Modesto for the injured and quarterbacked the team 20 yards in the fourth.

Dick Dangelo had gotten things under way in this contest on the second play from scrimmage when he scampered his way around right end for 57 yards and the Warriors' first score.

CAVALIERS SURPRISE BRAWLEY

The Serra Cavaliers traveled 200 miles to play the Brawley Wildcats. The trip wasn't for naught as they came home with the bacon 16-6.

The Cavaliers put across two tallies in the second quarter to take a 13-0 half-time lead. Quarterback Mike Thornton went over from the one to climax a 72-yard drive. The Cavaliers got another six-pointer on a Thornton to Davis 24-yard pass play.

In the third quarter Danny Heun made good on a 13-yard field-goal, which proved to break the Wildcats back as they would have to make three touchdowns to heat the Cavaliers. The Wildcats fought back furiously.

Wildcat Weldon Rutledge took a Al Gonzales' punt on his own 17 and behind great blocking, rambled 83 yards for the touch down to put Brawley back in the game, 16-6. With two minutes to play the Wildcats recovered a Serra fumble on their own 35 and put on a determined drive.

The Cavaliers' defense stiffened and third and less than one on the Serra 13 the Wildcats couldn't dent the Cavaliers' forward wall. The Cavaliers took over on their 13 and eat up the final seconds on the ground.

For the second week Bill (Dog) Dawson looked great at fullback gaining 112 yards rushing. Mike Thornton clicked on his passes completing 8 out of 19, his chief targets being ends Tom Paavola and Dick Wiest.
