Also asleep at the time were the Horsley's two children, Fred, Jr., 11/2, Lucy, 21/2, and the dead woman's brother, William Coulter, 26, according to Horsley.

Horsley said he was awakened by what he thought were the children crying, Ashton stated.

He got out of bed, put on his trousers, and went across the hall to the children's bedroom. Then he thought he heard his wife call,

"Fred, Fred, help me," he said, according to Ashton. The house was dark. Horsley®
