

CUB PACK TO SKATE

Cub Pack 951-C will skate with their families on October 28, 1 p.m., at the Torrance skating rink.

Recent cub awards were presented on Pack night, October 19 at the Crenshaw elementary school by assistant Cub Master, Thomas Carter. The following cubs received badges and awards: Ross Whipple, Jack Jenkins, Lowell Sayre, Robert Friesner, Craig Schweisinger, Robert Snyder, Patrick Freeman, Alexis Potts, Dane Walker, Peter Hornig, Jack Snavelly, Stanley Reynolds, Vinton Greenstreet, and Neal Charron.

One year pins were presented to David Ellis, Robert Nichols, Vinton Greenstreet and Ross Whipple.

Soroptimists Hear Doctor

Dr. Frederic Ewen, counselor of the Southwest branch of the County Medical Society, addressed members of the Torrance-Gardena Soroptimist club at a regular luncheon meeting recently. Mrs. Margaret Neff presided.

"Torrance Memorial hospital," Ewen said, "is one of the finest for its size of any hospital in the United States. When the new addition is completed there will be approximately 96 beds. The new Riviera hospital, 96 beds, plus the new Sisters' hospital, 250 beds, soon to be built at Torrance blvd. and Earl st. should relieve the hospital situation in the growing Torrance area."

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Thomas J. O'Dwyer has asked Dr. Ewen to organize the staff for the Sisters' hospital.

Dr. Evans was twice Chief of Staff at the Torrance Memorial hospital, is a delegate to the L.A. County Medical association from the California Medical society and alternate delegate to the California Medical society from the American association, besides belonging to many other medical societies.

The next meeting of the Soroptimist club will be at the home of Mrs. W. E. Bowen, 248 Avenida Atezado, Hollywood Riviera, with Mrs. Helen Rodgers as co-chairman. They will show pictures and tell of their trips to the Orient. This will be a pot-luck at 7:30 p.m., Oct. 29.

Witnesses To Attend Assembly

Members of the Torrance congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses will participate in the three-day assembly sponsored by the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society of New York. It will be held at the Forum theater, 4050 West Pico boulevard, October 26-28.

The assembly will be attended by over 2000 members made up of 20 congregations of Jehovah's Witnesses. According to Garold F. Dunham, presiding minister of the local group, this represents an increase of two new congregations since last year.

Flowers Promise Months Of Stimulating Color

By LEWIS LORING

Calendulas, stock, snapdragons, pansies, violas, and early primroses are now appearing at your retail nurseries. All thrive on the short cool days ahead and furnish months of stimulating color when the entire garden is at a low ebb.

Of this group calendulas or pot marigolds need a re-introduction into many gardens as there are new varieties that are markedly superior to strains available just a few short years ago. Present day calendulas produce giant semi-double daisy flowered blooms in the old familiar orange and yellow as well as many new shades such as apricot, salmon and cream. Each flower head is borne on a strong stem of excellent cutting length, thus giving calendulas a dual role of garden beauty and indoor decoration.

Plant calendulas one foot apart in loose soil into which has been worked a good supply of steer manure. Avoid watering in the evening but do give occasional daytime thorough soakings. Calendulas require plenty of water but tend to rot when they suffer from steady wet feet, so raised beds may be wise in anticipation of winter rains.

As calendula plantings require quite some time to present a good show of color, it may be beneficial to interspace some of the medium growing summer annuals that are still available as blooming size plants in nursery flats. Such items as dwarf marigolds, annual phlox, verbena, petunias or pom-pom zinnias will give immediate color in the flower bed and are easily topped or pulled out as the calendula planting matures to give its long winter show.

PTA Presidents Attend Opening

Mrs. William Shier, president of Lomita-San Pedro council, with the various presidents in the council, served as hostesses at the opening PTA meeting of the new Crestwood school in San Pedro.

The presidents who served with Mrs. Shier were: Mesdames Leland Van Buren, Harbor City; Frank Gorbet, Lomita; David Goolsby, 223rd street; Palmer Orseth, 259th place; and E. N. Reese, Half-dale.
