Memorial Services Set Today For Alden Roach

Memorial services for Alden G. Roach, president of the Columbia-Geneva Steel division of United States Steel corp., who was killed December 20 in a private plane crash in Pennsylvania, will be held at St. James Episcopal church, 3903 Wilshire Blvd., Los Angeles, at 2:30 p.m. today, Thursday, January 3.

Private rites and interment were conducted at Forest Lawn Memorial-Park December 24. The family requests any contributions be made to the Cancer Society or the Heart Fund in lieu of flowers.

President Since 1948
 Mr. Roach had been president of Columbia-Geneva since 1948. He also served as president of a second far west division of U. S. Steel, Consolidated Western, from 1948 to 1955. A native of St. Louis, Mo., he attended public schools in that city before entering the University of Illinois from where he received his BS degree in civil engineering in 1923.

'Little Red School House' Head Resigns

The originator of Torrance's noted "Little Red School House" experiment is leaving the local school district, it was announced at the meeting of the Board of Education.

Dr. Walter Rehboldt, director of instruction, submitted his resignation to become assistant superintendent of schools at Barstow.

Rehboldt was recently awarded his doctorate on the basis of a study made of the "Little Red School House" idea in Torrance.

Under this plan tried at Welteria elementary school, children from three grades were placed in the same room for the purpose of instruction to see if learning and social adjustment would not improve. Rehboldt's resignation becomes effective January 15. He came here in 1947.

21 CHILDREN AIDED BY LOCAL CLUB

Twenty-one children received new shoes and clothing as a result of contributions made by the Civitan club and local residents who responded to an appeal made by the club around Christmas time.

So stated Ernie Ashton of the Civitan club. Ashton said that the response to his letter asking for help for a needy family was gratifying.

Every child in the family received an entire new outfit of clothing, he said.

The Civitan club will continue to furnish shoes for all needy children the year around as a club project, he indicated.

dren, Mrs. Michael Millikan, Albany, N. Y.; Alden G. Roach, jr., a student at the University of Utah, and Miss Jennifer Roach, of South Laguna; three brothers, Harry, Douglas and Noyes, and two sisters, Mrs. James B. Holston and Mrs. Donal B. Pheley.
