Postmaster Asks Help For Carriers

Postmaster Clara A. Conner appealing to the residents of Torrance for help to reduce the hazard of slips and falls for letter carriers and other postal personnel who call at their

Mrs. Conner emphasized that the Post Office department is not alone in facing a problem of employe injuries from slips and falls and said she hopes also that her appeal will be of as-sistance to employes of delivery and service agencies-utilities, dairies, grocery stores, cleaners, department stores and the like.

The local postmaster noted that Washington Post Office Department headquarters had recently reemphasized the problem of slip and fall hazards for the nation's mailmen. In making a new appeal to postal parons over the country to help with this problem, acting Postmaster General Maurice H. Stans noted that a recent random check of 281 accidents selected for analysis showed that, of the 281, a total of 209 occurred on steps or stairways of postal patrons.

Stans noted in his statement that injuries to postal personnel, including some in this comunity, account for a total cost of $5,566,928 during a recent 12month period, according to reports from the US Department of Labor. And, he indicated, a very large part of this total annual medical and injury compensation cost to the government was due to slip and fall injuries on the job.
