Sophisticated Comedy is Big Hit on Hampton Stage

Noel Coward and all his witty sophistication came to life, and rightly so, as the Hampton Players continued a hilarious run last weekend of the English comedy, "Pleasant Laughter" at the Breeze auditorium, Redondo Beach.

This rollicking, fast moving play, which has been packing in theatre-goers for the past two weekends, is scheduled to be presented April 5 and 6, 8:30 p.m.

The Hampton Players have refurbished, refurnished, and redecorated what was a large empty, auditorium, into a cozy, intimate little theatre with curtains and lights that compliment the horseshoe-shaped stage. Comfortable seats have been installed on risers which afford excellent viewing from any angle.

All the action takes place in Garry Essendine's studio in London, a sophisticated setting for the sophisticated consequences that result. Jim Reeves, as Garry, is superbly cast as the London playboy who is forever "overacting" and must deal, almost simultaneously, with his wife, girl friend, secretary, butler, business associates, and neurotic playwright.

$6000 SCHOLARSHIP

A college scholarship, worth about $6000, was won by Kurt L. McMillen, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. James McMillen of 1608 West 204th st. The award was made by the Firestone Tire & Rubber co. as part of an annual program for outstanding students of employees.

2 Soloists Billed For Band Concert

Two Internationally famous musicians will occupy the stage in joint concert with the Torrance Area Youth band at the next program to be given in the Torrance Civic auditorium Sunday afternoon, April 7 at 4 p.m.

Sigurd Rascher, America's leading saxophone virtuoso, will be featured on the first half of the concert with the youth band. He will perform the "Prelude and Giga" by Corelli and the "Adagio and Samba" by Whitney with band accompaniment. The Youth Band will play the "Washington Grays" march, "Italian in Algiers" overture, and the finale to the Symphony No. 4 in F minor by Tschai-kovsky.

Mr. Rascher has the distinction of being the only saxophonist to have appeared as soloist on that instrument with the New York and Boston symphonies. He has stopped off in Los Angeles for a few days between engagements with the Honolulu and Portland symphonies.

Julian Olevsky, violinist, will perform on the second half of the concert. Mr. Olevsky, according to the New York Herald Tribune, is "the most worthwhile of our younger violinists."

Only 24 years of age, Mr. Olevsky has already toured Europe and the United States appearing in recital and with some of the leading symphony orchestras. For his Torrance engagement Mr. Olevsky will play the Sonata in D Major by Schubert, the Concerto No. 2 in D minor by Wieniawski, Meditation by Glazounov, and the "Carmen" Fantasy by Bizet-Sarasate.

Director S. R. Farnsworth and assistant director Thelma Ledwidge have assembled a cast, so convincing and well-suited for each part, that it is difficult to mention any one of the players in particular. However, Dorothy Tunis, who has a wealth of experience in all phases of the theatre, was excellent as the secretary. She affords that necessary stabilizing influence for Garry, who has a hard enough time keeping track of his girl friends, much less his correspondence.

Pat Rogers, Garry's estranged wife, and Jean Manger, the sweet young thing who loses her latch key and must account for her actions in Garry's apartment, are equally well-cast. Diana Mitchell, as the shapely, predatory female, and Ronald W. Helliwell, the "Righty-o" butler, add credibility to the play with their authentic English accents.

Both James Watson and Miriam Wilson, take a change of pace in "Pleasant Laughter" from their two most recent little theatre roles. Watson, who was the emotional Preacher Haggler in Chapel theatre's "Dark of the Moon" discards his robe for a conventional tweed suit in the role of a businessman, and Miriam exchanges her bikini bathing suit in Manhattan Player's "Solid Gold Cadillac" for a more conservative apron and high necked servant's costume as the Scandinavian cook.

George Hocutt, as the budding young playwright, adds even more confusion to the proceedings with the help of Duane Ryan and Patricia Coates as Lady Saltburn, an "awnt."

Especially is credit due those who worked so hard to prepare the auditorium for the Hampton Players' first production in their new home, and the crew that worked behind the scenes to make the play a success.

They are Hal Douglas, technical director; Cliff Tunis, Fob Ledwidge, Jim Flynn, Bruce Wilson, Steve Rogers, Nick Rogers, Pat Brown, and Carl Rogers, stage crew; Dudley and Rose Ranger, lighting; and Mary Woodson, Dominica Hauser, Ethel Dugan, Daisy Ford, Pat Wyatt, Barbara McDaniel, Monte Millard, Eunice Perkins, Vivian Wilson, and Lorene Ledwidge.—DP.
