Furniture Store Opens In Torrance

Featuring the better grades of furniture, Look Furniture Co. has opened at 1336 Post ave. (across from Roth's market.)
 David Rosewater, owner of the store, moved here from his place at 5500 S. Vermont where he owned the Showplace of Modern which, he said, was known as the most beautiful store on Vermont.

The local store features bedroom and living room sets, bedding, standard brand appliances, and Moss lamps.
 Individuals are free to buy from one piece of furniture to a housefull of furniture, Rosewater said, stating that he uses a system whereby individuals may make up their own furniture groupings.
 Rosewater also offers free decorating advice.
 There is ample and convenient parking adjacent to the store, Look Furniture, the owner stated, has access to all of the finest lines of furniture on the market.
 Rosewater is an alumnus of Ohio State university.

BUNDLY HOMES
 Bundly Homes are located in the north Wilmington section an area, of prevailing ocean breezes.

Population Now 88,881

Torrance's population stands at 88,881 as of April 1, according to Regional Planning Commission estimates.
 City Manager George Stevens believed the figure to be nearly correct. He predicted that Torrance's population would be 90,000 by July 1. At the last official census (October, 1956) Torrance's population stood at 82,234.
 In 1950 the figure was 22,000. Torrance is now the county's sixth largest city with Burbank, whose population is 93,718, one jump ahead.

Bundly Homes Offer Nine Elevations

Built to rigid standards of construction, Bundly Homes, located on 220th st, east of Avalon, are conventional and contemporary in design, according to Kenny Davis.
 Davis, whose Kenny Davis Realty co. is the exclusive agent for the homes which are a Morris Homes Development, indicated that there are nine elevations to choose from.
 Buyers have a choice of three bedroom homes with 1½ baths, or four bedroom homes with 1-¾ baths, selling from $12,625 to $13,850, with two per cent down for veterans (plus cost and impounds).

 The homes feature hardwood floors, natural finish cabinets, insulated ceilings, weather-stripped exterior doors, mahogany doors, wardrobe closets, tile stall shower (four bedroom), tile kitchens, built-in dishwasher, garbage disposal, rough-in for automatic washer, sliding glass wall in living area, double garages, waterproof durastone exteriors, gutters and downspouts, clothes poles and line, steets, sewers and curbs.
