

Your weighty budget problems solved

Don't let weighty budget problems get you down! Balancing your budget is easy as the proverbial rolling off a log when you do your food shopping at Food Giant. We sell food at the lowest prices consistent with quality. Food Giant can sell so cheaply because we do more business per store than any other store in the community. The more business we do the more economically we can operate and the lower we can offer quality merchandise to you. It's really awfully simple when you think about it, isn't it? So why not give your spirits and your budget a lift this week-end—come on in and save.
