BLUE BIRDS HOLD FLY-UP CEREMONY

A crackling camp fire and fragrant pine-cones set the scene for the fly-up ceremony of the Bonnie Blue Birds into Camp Fire girls. The group included Mary Sue Shockley, Judy Kupka, Cheryl Osborn, Peggy Hart, Jennifer Gagne, Christine Perkins, Diane Winchell, and Cheryl Tripp. Three new girls, Linda Hefnider, Angela Lomando, and Astrid Gabloffsky also became members of the Camp Fire group. The girls chose the Indian name Tawasi Kinunka, which means good friends growing together, for their group. During the program, the Estrellita Horizon club girls, who sponsored the fly-up ceremony, presented each girl with a neckerchief. The newly-formed group of Camp Fire Girls received their books and pins from their parents. As the Bonnie Blue Birds threw their Blue Bird symbols into the fire, they officially became Tawasi Kinunka, Camp Fire Girls. The guardians of the group are Mrs. Wanda Hart and Mrs. Jane Shockley of Torrance.
