Frances Gene Nelson Wed To Edward Frank Ricks

The Latter Day Saints Temple was decorated with pink and white bells and baskets of white gladiolas, asters and carnations when Frances Gene Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nelson, 1602 W. 205th st., became the bride of Edward Frank Ricks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Ricks, 1028 Hickory ave., on June 21 at 1 p.m.

For the double ring ceremony the bride wore a silk taffeta and lace gown with a bouffant skirt and train. The bodice and lace overskirt were appliqued with sequins. She wore a fingertip veil and her flowers were white orchids and carnations.

Dressed alike in frocks of pink nylon chiffon over satin and carrying bouquets of pink carnations were her attendants, Joyce Rentmeister and Ruth Darton.

Flower girls were Debbie Foster and Luanna Bingham, who wore matching dresses of pink and blue nylon and carried nosegays of pink rosebuds.

Carl Nelson, brother of the bride, was best man and ushers were Doug Bergen, and Jack Davis.

For the ceremony Mrs. Nelson chose a princess style dress of blue silk and Mrs. Ricks wore a dress of rose lace over rose satin.

Both young people graduated from local schools and the groom is with the Air Force at Hamilton Air Base.

After a brief honeymoon in northern California, they will reside in Navato, California.

Diane C. Larson Wed In First Lutheran Church

The setting was the First Lutheran church, when Diane C. Larson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie M. Larson, 1515 Acacia ave. became the bride of Donald C. Jensen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Jensen, 1120 Vincent st., Redondo Beach, in a 3 p.m. ceremony on June 30.

Mr. Larson escorted his daughter to the altar, and Rev. Paul Wenske read the wedding service. Mrs. Paul Wenske was the organist.

A floor length princess style gown of white raw silk, designed with chapel train and long pointed sleeves, was chosen by the bride. The bodice had a semi-sweetheart neckline which was outlined with Chantilly lace and a sprinkling of mother-of-pearl sequins.

The Chantilly lace and sequin design was repeated on the long sweeping skirt. The bridal crown was composed of two layers of leaves with tiny rhinestones and mother-of-pearl sequins, the fingertip veil was pure silk.

She carried a cascade type bouquet of white stephanotis, and white begonias with streamers.

Attendants In Pastel

Peggy Franklin was maid of honor and her gown was pale green—nylon chiffon, with draped shoulders and fitted bodice. She wore a short veil with a crown of pompons, and carried a bouquet of green tinted begonias with darker green streamers. Bridesmaids were Miss Grace Maddy, who wore a lavender gown, Mrs. John Keidser, Redondo Beach, whose gown was turquoise and Mrs. Gail Davis, Los Angeles, whose gown was yellow.

Dainty Flower Girl
The flower girl was Candy Peckham, five year old blonde who wore a white nylon dress, sprinkled with tiny pink flowers and carried pink and white rosebuds.

Best man was Kenneth Kirksey, Gardena, ushers were Lee Richardson, Donald Alexander, William R. K. Ferril, Jr., Redondo Beach, and George Jensen.

Mrs. Nancy Hesson and Miss Patricia Mounger were at the guest book.

For her daughters wedding Mrs. Larson wore a powder blue sheath dress of brocatelle taffeta with matching accessories. Mrs. Jensen wore a pink gown with white accessories. A reception for 350 guests was held at the YWCA, immediately following the ceremony.

The bride went to El Camino college and graduated from Long Beach college as a dental nurse in June.

The bridegroom is attending USC and is civil engineer major. He is a member of Phi Sigma Epsilon and Engineers Club.

After a honeymoon trip to Northern California the couple will live in Lomita.
