

Nativity Church Scene Of Lupo-Becker Rites

In a 3 p.m. ceremony, Pauline Marie Lupo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lupo, 21622 Moneta ave., became the bride of Walter Becker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melton J. Becker, 2773 Cosy ave., Long Beach, on July 7, at Nativity Catholic church.

The bride wore a white silk gown appliqued lavishly with imported lace, and carried a spray of white orchids and lilies of the valley on a white prayer-book. She was given in marriage by her father.

Delores Di Mosso who was maid of honor, wore a white nylon chiffon gown with a full skirt and sabrina neckline. The fitted bodice, was embroidered with blue and she carried blue carnations. Wearing a tiny copy of the maid of honors dress was the flower girl Susan Allen who carried a basket of pink carnations.

Roberta O'Connell, Sandra Becker, Carol Cooper, and Miriam Gogran were bridesmaids and wore gowns matching that of the maid of honor with pink embroidery and carrying flowers were of pink carnations.

The best man was Milton Becke and ushers were Maroe Staber, Gene Coleman, Ronald Colfield and Mike Janish.

The bride's mother wore a silk sheath with shirred bodice in shades of soft grey. The groom's mother wore a white princess style frock with pink embroidery.

The bride attended Nativity school and St. Anthony high school in Long Beach. She also attended El Camino where she was a member of Delta Sigma Chi.

The groom attended Polly high school in Long Beach and is presently employed by Larco Machine works in that city.

Boy Scouts Win Silver Moccasins

Thirteen boys and four adult leaders of Lomita Scout Troop 118, sponsored by American Legion Post No. 645 started on the Silver Moccasins hike Friday afternoon, June 28. Eleven boys with their leaders completed the 68-mile hike about noon July 2.

Boys who completed the hike and their present Scout rank are: Tommy Williams, star scout; Kaysee Tsuji, first class scout; Guy Strange, second class scout; Kenneth Beard, first class scout; Van Smittle, first class scout; Alan Anderson, second class scout; Victor Heiner, second class scout; Arthur Laski, first class scout; Bruce Matlock, second class scout; Charles Hume, second class scout; and Joe Zacher, first class scout.

Adult leaders making the hike were: Billy Haslam, Isaiah Winner, Koki Tsuji, and W. R. Smittle.

Mr. Dave Williams, assistant scoutmaster, served as contact man and provided a meal at Buckhorn Camp, where food supplies were replenished.

James Wadsley of Troop 115 joined the above group at Buckhorn and completed the last half of the trip. James had been forced to drop out at Buckhorn as Troop 115 made the hike the week before, because of a cut hand.

Heat, rain, and even a touch of frost gave the boys a variety of weather on the trip.

All the boys who completed the hike have earned "Silver Moccasins" medals and certificates and upon completion of a written report of the trip, will have earned the "Hiking" merit badge.
