

Dr. Fred Schwarz
Dr. Fred C. Schwarz, noted surgeon and psychiatrist of Sydney, Australia, will be guest speaker Sunday evening at 7:30 at the First Baptist church, 2118 Carson st., according to a news release by Rev. Morgan Gates, pastor.

"God, Source of Life" Theme

That God, the source of all true life and intelligence, is ever available to humanity will be set forth at Christian Science services Sunday, 1720 Manuel. Scriptural selections in the Lesson-Sermon on "Life" will include the following from Psalms (16:1, 11), "Preserve me, O God: for in thee do I put my trust. . . Thou wilt shew me the path of life: in thy presence is fulness of joy; at thy right hand there, are pleasures forevermore."

CHURCH DINNER SLATED

During the absence of Rev. John L. Taylor, who is engaged in a two and one half month tour of Europe and the Near East, the pulpit of the First Methodist church, 1551 El Prado, will be occupied by Rev. Donald J. Shelby, associate minister of the church.

He is preaching this Sunday on the subject, "Saying No to God." Rev. Shelby is beginning his fourth year with the church serving both as associate minister and minister of music.

The combined children's choirs will assist in the 9 a.m. worship service, the Senior-Wesley and Chancel choirs will sing at the 11 a.m. services. The choirs will be under the direction of Eva Brundin, who serves as assistant director and Ruth White is the organist.

A fried chicken dinner, a fellowship sing, and a vesper service in Palos Verdes will mark the evening program of the Youth Division of the church, as they gather for their quarterly meeting at 6:30 on Sunday evening. This brings together all the youth groups of the church, under the direction of Marvin Hiebert, youth superintendent.
