

Claiming to have made the first political flag in American history, Mrs. Shirley Burnstein, 3612 W. 109th st., Inglewood, presented the Democratic banner to State Senator Richard Richards at a Democratic fundraising banquet in Torrance Saturday.

The red-white-and-blue flag sports a brown three-dimensional donkey, symbol of the Democratic party, on a green ribbon, representing the grass roots movement. Four gold stars represent north, south, east and west. An attempt is being made to get the State to adopt this as the Democratic flag. Mrs. Burnstein

In the Monday men's handicap, the 13th week of play saw R. Mariucci rack up a scorching 714 to win top honors for his team mates. High game honors went to C. Judd with a 261.

The Goofers continue to hold the lead with a 32-20 record in Magnetic Research's league. High scorer last time out was D. Stahr with 621.
