JOE De JAIFRE, Torrance Heating and Appliance co.

Torrance Heating And Appliance Company Among Bidding Contest Sponsors

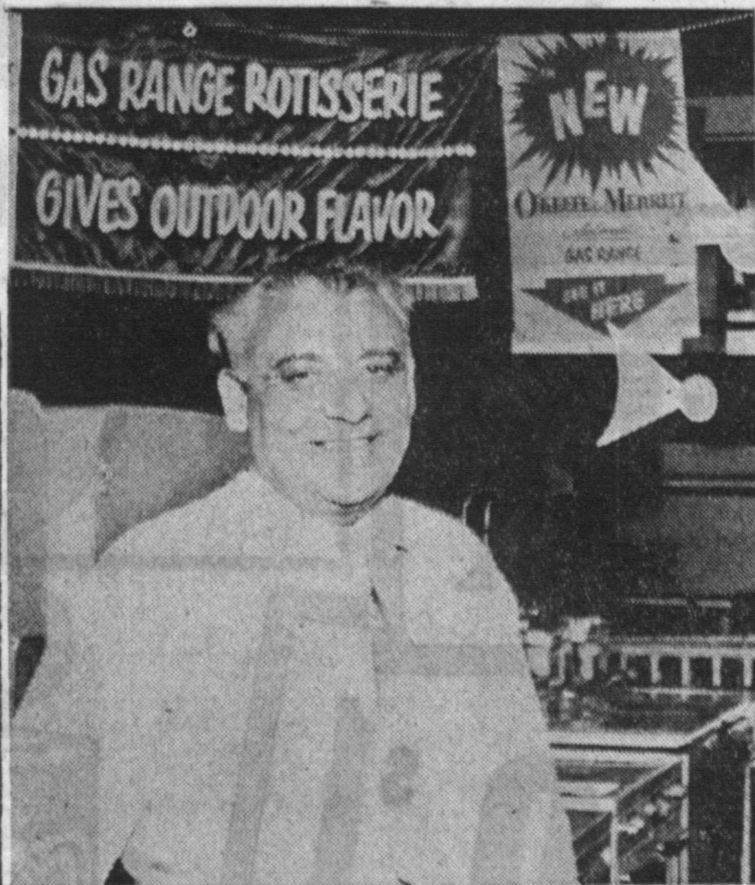

Torrance Bidding Contest sponsor Joe De Jaifre, owner of the Torrance Heating and Appliance co., 1545 West Carson, is an enthusiastic supporter of the Torrance Bidding Contest. "For once," says De Jaifre, "people have the chance to buy at their own price." Although born in France he has spent many years in this area. De Jaifre likes to tell how he started in business six years ago on Torrance blvd., with nothing to sell but himself. Today he is a prosperous businessman.

His love for boats has inspired him to add to his stock a complete line of sport craft, with all of the accessories from water skis to flags. He is still a gas appliance dealer but is changing the name of his store to the Torrance Boat Mart. He has been very active in civic events and is a member of the American Legion, Post 187. His wife who spends most of her time with the business is the immediate past-president of the Torrance Pilots International.

Hank's & Frank's Furniture Bidding Contest Sponsors

Torrance Bidding Contest sponsor, Frank Dominguez Sr., proprietor of Frank's Furniture, 1334 El Prado in Torrance and Hank's Furniture, 24112 Narbonne ave., Lomita, has lived in the vicinity of Torrance for many years. Old timers will remember when he was a furniture salesman for the El Prado Furniture co., that was located on the corner of El Prado and Sartori.

Dominguez launched into business for himself by opening Frank's Furniture Store and later opening Hank's Furniture in Lomita. His chief hobby is his membership in the Torrance Lions Club, where he is a member of their baseball and bowling teams. You will find many articles with "Open For Bid" signs in both of his stores.
