We've got "Big Deals" for "Small Bu

Do you ever listen to those blustering, boastful auto salesmen on T.V.? They're always talking about big deals, and big savings, and big this, and big that. Gosh, if they ever got a look at the big deals that F.G. offers every week on groceries, they'd probably burst a gasket trying to think of some new adjectives to describe what every Food Giant customer takes for granted... F.G. prices are the lowest possible consistent with quality... no matter how you say that, it's a big deal!
