NO MAN who continues to add something to the material, intellectual, and moral well-being of the place in which he lives, is left long without proper reward.—Booker T. Washington.

Lutheran Sunday School Moves Into New Building

This coming Sunday morning at 9:30 a.m., the Sunday school of First Lutheran church, Carson and Flower will move into the new education building just completed.

The new building makes it possible for the Sunday school to be departmentalized. Each department will have its own opening service. Each department is equipped with a little altar, a lectern and a piano to create a worship center for the group. The Sunday school will have a class for every age. Two new classes have been created, these are a class for the young adults and an inquirers' class, taught by the pastor. This class is for all those who wish to study the doctrines of the christian church in order to prepare themselves for church membership; and for those who wish to refresh their memories on these doctrines. During the 10:45 a.m. worship services this coming Sunday, a group of some over twenty adults will be received into membership of First Lutheran church.

THOUGHT MUST be made better, and human life more fruitful, for the divine energy to move it onward and upward.—Mary Baker Eddy.

'Man' Will Be Sermon On Sunday

Man's rich inheritance of dominion and power is stressed in the Lesson-Sermon on "Man" to be read in all Christian Science churches on Sunday.

A Scriptural verse from Genesis (1:26) included in the Lesson-Sermon says, "And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness; and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the air, and over the cattle and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth."

"Immortal spiritual man alone represents the truth of creation," declares Mary Baker Eddy in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures." In another passage she challenges, "Has man sought out other creative inventions, and so changed the method of his Maker?" (pp. 263, 531). Acknowledging this great creative power the Golden Text from Psalms (95:6, 7) sings, "O come, let us worship and bow down: let us kneel before the Lord our maker. For he is our God; and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand."

WE SHOULD manage our fortune as we do our health, enjoy it when good, be patient when it is bad, and never apply violent remedies except in an extreme necessity.—Rochefoucauld.

Open House Scheduled

"Can a Christian Do As He Pleases?" will be the title of Dr. J. C. Brumfield's message on Sunday, at the 11 a.m. service at the South Bay Baptist church, 4565 Sharynne Lane.

At the 7:30 p.m. service his topic will be "How Can A Just God Be Merciful?" On Tuesday at 7:30 p.m., the Sunday School workers will hold their conference, and the regular prayer meeting will be held on Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. An open house will be held at the church on Thursday, September 12, honoring Dr. and Mrs. Brumfield on their silver wedding anniversary.

Pastor To Attend Conference

Paul C. Wenske, pastor of First Lutheran church and Mrs. Wenske will leave early Monday morning for Asilomar on the Monterey Peninsula to attend a Lutheran theological conference.

At this conference the speakers will be some of the Lutheran leaders of the world who attend the recent Lutheran World Federation meeting at Minneapolis, Minnesota.

Pastor and Mrs. Wenske are being sent by their congregation. Lutheran pastors of all Lutheran Synods of California will be attending this conference.

Jewish Center Announces Arrival of Rabbi Shapiro

An important step forward was taken by the Gardena Valley Jewish Center this month when it acquired the full-time services of Rabbi Aaron Shapiro, most recently of Quincy, Massachusetts.

Rabbi Shapiro, who is a graduate of the Yishiva University in New York City, the largest Hebrew Theological Seminary in the country, follows the Conservative path of Judaism. He served as Rabbi in Augusta, Georgia for ten years, then moved to Clarksburg, West Virginia, where he remained for six years. His last pulpit was in Quincy, Massachusetts.

The Rabbi has been very active in the National Conference of Christians and Jews, at one time having served on one of its national committees, and is the recipient of several citations from that group. While in the east and south, Rabbi Shapiro worked for the United Jewish Appeal, and was also very active in the Zionist movement.

Rabbi Shapiro stated that first he plans to strengthen the religious way of life, in the area of regular Friday night services, and the observation of all holidays with appropriate festivities and services. Secondly, he plans to re-organize the educational system of the Sunday School and Hebrew classes to meet the high standards of the Jewish Board of Education, with which the Center has affiliated.

Third he hopes to widen the program of youth activities. Classes in adult education will also start immediately following the High Holy Days. These classes will include topics such as Jewish History, Outlook and Trends, the Democratic Ideals in Judaism, and Bible Appreciation.

"Our aim is to make the Center the focal point of interest for all religious, educational and social activities for the Jewish families living in our community," the Rabbi stated, "and to create an environment of 'belonging' so that everyone will feel he is part of the overall community."

The Rabbi, who resides with his wife, Roslie, and 14 year old son, Stanley, at 2043 W. Compton Blvd., Apt. D., may be contacted at Davis 4-6255 for further information regarding the Center.
