

TEACHERS, NOT CONTESTANTS

No, the above are not entrants to the Miss America Contest, but they certainly might be. They are just a few of the 175 new teachers assigned to Torrance Schools. They are (l to r) Miss Betty Willingham of Park-way Elementary; Mrs. Claire McNary, Seaside Elementary; Miss Pat Caras, Perry Elementary; Miss Rae Olson, North High; Miss Marilyn Nansel, Perry Elementary; and Miss Joy Eaton of Carr Elementary.

Carl Steele PTA Members Announce Plans for Year

The executive board of the Carl Steele PTA held the third meeting of the summer Thursday evening. Mrs. A. A. Hawkins, president, presided. Final reports on the orientation luncheon were given by Mrs. H. G. Rix, hospitality chairman. Board members volunteered their services for serving and preparation of the menu. The luncheon will be given by the board for school personnel on Wednesday, September 11, at 1 p.m. Mrs. W. A. Freeman, membership chairman, reported on her committee meeting. The small posters which will appear in each classroom will be ready Monday, September 9. Membership envelopes which are sent home with each child will be available at the Council Workshop to be held Tuesday, September 10, at North Torrance High school. The budget and finance committee will meet at the home of Mrs. D. J. Coleman, chairman, Monday, September 9. The committee composed of Misses A. D. Hawkins, R. L. Golden, Erving, A. W. Beresford, W. H. Steele and Mr. R. K. Petrat, will formulate the budget to be presented at the first association meeting. Hi-Jinks chairman, Mrs. D. J. Coleman assigned the board member booths for which they

Teachers Honored at Steak Fry

One hundred and seventy-five new Torrance school teachers were honored at a steak-fry Thursday at the Torrance Municipal park by the Chamber of Commerce and its downtown retail merchant's division. The chamber's education chairman, Fred E. Brunner, said that 230 people attended the function, designed to give "the typical All-America City welcome to the newcomers." Speeches in addition to Brunner, "brief" welcoming speeches were delivered by acting Mayor Robert B. Jahn, Chamber Treasurer Fred W. Mill, Board of Education President J. G. Arnold, and J. H. Paget, president of the downtown retail merchant's division. The Reverend H. Milton Sippel, president of the Torrance Ministerial association, led benediction. Others attending were members of the city council, city and chamber officials and board of education and school officials. The entire meal was prepared and served by members of the Torrance plant of the El Segundo division of Douglas aircraft under leadership of Danny Mears of salvage sales. Members of the education committee include Dr. Warren Hamilton, Darwin D. Parrish, Glenn Koger, Fred Todd, and Brunner.

PTA to Hold Work Shop at North High

Parent Teacher Associations are opening the fall session with a work shop sponsored by the Torrance PTA Council, Tuesday, Sept. 10, at North High school, with guest speakers on various phases of PTA activities. Dr. Warren Hamilton, Director of Special Services, will present ideas of the importance of parent education to the unit chairmen on Parent Education. The Mental Health group will hear reports from Mrs. Clark Walsworth of the San Pedro Harbor District Mental Health service, and Mrs. M. E. Bigham, the 33rd District Mental Health chairman. Mr. Robert S. Dollarhide, Director of Psychiatric Guidance for Torrance School District, will give a picture of what Torrance offers. Each of the other Council chairmen will direct a work shop of guidance for the unit chairmen, to help in the coming year's work.

Unconsciousness

Mother Daughter Wed In Double Ceremony

One of the most unusual weddings of the year was that of Alma Otts and her daughter Sylvia 305 Harbor Hills, Harbor City. They married in a double wedding service at the Calvary church in Lomita on August 31, at 7 p.m.

Mrs. Otts was married to George T. Baisley, son of Mrs. Annie B. Baisley 1212 S. 6th st. Lomita.

She wore a pale blue lace waltz length gown, with a slightly bouffant skirt and a cowl collar. Her flowers were pale pink roses. Mrs. Evelyn Hitchcock was matron of honor and Goerge Baisley Jr. was best man.

Mr. Baisley is the proprietor of the Penn Automotive garage in Lomita. They will live at 25212 Pennsylvania ave.

Sylvia became the bride of Joe Livingston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Taul N. Livingston, 1901 Lomita Blvd., Lomita.

She wore a frock of shirred white nylon, her corsage was white orchids, and was given in marriage by her brother, Billy Otts.

Lick was maid of honor, and Jerry Livingston best man, Delores Otts was flower girl.

After a honeymoon trip to San Diego the couple will reside at 1901 Lomita Blvd., Lomita.

Garden Club Will Meet Wednesday

The Torrance Terrace Garden club will hold its first meeting on Wednesday, September 11 at 12:30 p.m. Mrs. Ronald Bishop, 2708 El Dorado, will be hostess. After dessert, plans will be made for years program, and members will have an informal discussion on the planting and care of flowers.

Concert Set For October 11

Labor Day marked the end of summer for the Beach Cities Symphony orchestra, as rehearsals for the new season began on Tuesday, September 3, in Mira Costa's Music Building, at 7:45 p.m. Composer-Director Louis Palange has planned the year's five concerts for Oct. 11, Dec. 20, Feb. 21, April 11, and June 6; and the Beach Cities Symphony Association has already initiated the season with the Reception-Musical of August 18, honoring its new president, Dr. George C. Anderson, Hermosa Beach's "Man of the Year." Chairman of the Board, Mrs. Helen Hart Whitaker, announces the incorporation of the orchestra as one of the important accomplishments of the Association's summer activities. The woodwind and brass sections of the Beach Cities Symphony are well filled, and indeed have waiting lists, but the string section is always open to new enlistments.
