Obedience Training Course To Start On September 26

Due to many requests from people with unruly dogs, an adult beginners "Dog Obedience Training Course" for handlers and their pets will be conducted in Gardena at Recreation park, 158th and Normandie, commencing Thursday, September 26, from 7 until 8 p.m. Marty Lehr, well known obedience trainer in Southern California communities, will conduct the nine-week course which will be climaxed by a graduation of both the dog and its handler. Enrollment in the course is open to all sized dogs, both pedigreed and "mixed" breeds. Registration will take place at time of first session on Thursday, September 26, with a nominal fee required payable at time of registration.

Complete nine week course includes: 1—heeling, 2—automatic sit, 3—stand for examination, 4—heel free, 5—figure eight, 6—recall, 7—long sit, 8—long down, 9—graduation. Highlight of the course will be the graduation, at which time dogs and their masters will be judged and graded by a point system. Judges will be provided through the courtesy of the Southwest Dog Obedience Club, Inc. Dogs are awarded graduation certificates on a point system, 200 points being a perfect score.

Trophies will be awarded dogs placing first, second, third, and fourth. An E for Effort trophy will be awarded the handler by the trainer, who by their dog's performance, exhibits the most time and effort spent towards their dog's obedience training.

Marty Lehr has been training dogs in the southwest area for the past six years; her name is a by-word in the dog world. She has been associated with the Southwest Obedience Club, Inc., for many years and trains at private homes as well as for communities. Mrs. Lehr states, "Anyone participating in dog obedience training is performing a community service as it makes the pet, not a neighborhood nuisance, but a better companion for everyone, as well as providing for the dog's safety through his obedience to commands. A dog worth training is a dog worth feeding!"

Obedience training is fun! For further information you may contact the Gardena Recreation and Parks Department.

Harbor Junior College Offers Management Course

Industrial supervision and management courses, planned for those with experience in the field of supervision as well as for potential supervisors, are being offered by Harbor Evening college during the coming Fall semester. Mrs. Hope M. Powell, Chairman of the Division of Business, explained today.

Examples of some of these courses are "Freight Traffic Management," "Management and Labor," "Management and Supervision," "Human Relations for Supervisors," and "Elements of Supervision." The instructors are Davis Coyle, Anthony Nizetic, Edward Dornacher, John Muchmore, and John Buell, all of whom have outstanding training and experience in the field of industrial supervision.

Registration for Harbor college day evening classes is now in progress from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. on the local campus. A complete schedule of all classes is available and may be obtained by calling at the college, 1111 Figueroa Place, Wilmington.
