Dr. and Mrs. Brumfield Honored at Reception

The Board of Deacons of the SOUTH BAY BAPTIST CHURCH, 4565 Sharynne Lane, held a reception in the Social hall Thursday evening honoring the pastor and his wife, Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Brumfield, on their SILVER WEDDING ANNIVERSARY. Acting as hosts were members of the Berean Sunday school class.

The former Miss Betty Jane Hardy and James Clifford Brumfield were married September 12, 1932, in the Baptist church, Cantwell, Mo. Rev. Sidney W. Brumfield, Dr. Brumfield's father, performed the ceremony. Of special interest is the manner in which the two met. The Hardy family had set aside in their home a room especially designed for the comfort of visiting clergyman. It was while Mr. Brumfield was a guest in the prophet room that he met the lovely daughter and courted her.

Dr. and Mrs. Brumfield are co-executive directors of Radio Kids Bible Club with studios located in West Los Angeles. This program is broadcast coast to coast and around the world. They have also been affiliated with the Back to the Bible Broadcast originating in Lincoln, Nebraska, and until recently Dr. Brumfield had been vice-president of International Child Evangelism. He presently is serving on its advisory board.

The Brumfields have two children, Mrs. Ronald Dean of Fresno, Calif., and Pvt. Robert Brumfield, stationed at the marine base, Camp Pendleton, Calif., also a grandson, Douglas Ronald Dean, Fresno.

Dr. William C. Thomas, pastor of the First Baptist Church, West Los Angeles, spoke briefly of his association with the Brumfields through the years. Until his pastorate here Dr. and Mrs. Brumfield had been members of that church.

Harold W. Buzzard, chairman of the board of deacons of the local church, extended congratulations and best wishes on behalf of the church family.

Mesdames Stuart Smith, Robert Veverka, and Al Bell sang "Love Shall Abide." Mrs. Ronald Dean sang one of her parent's favorites, "Known Only to Him." The trio and soloist was accompanied by Mrs. Martin W. Hess at the piano.

Dr. and Mrs. Brumfield spoke briefly. One of the highlights was a recital of an original poem composed by his wife, entitled "Just The Same."

Coffee, tea, fruit punch and a four-tiered wedding cake made by Mrs. Al Cianfrini, a member of the Berean class, was served to the more than two hundred guests. Pouring were Mrs. William C. Thomas, Mrs. T. Myron Webb and Mrs. George M. Whitaker.

Mrs. Ronald Dean was in charge of the guest book. Members of the Radio-Kids Bible Club Board attending were: Dr. A. Clifton Hanna, Mr. Wayne Crew, Dr. and Mrs. William C. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Buzzard. Out-of-town guests from West Los Angeles were: Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Warth, Miss Bonnie Heinmiller, Mr. and Mrs. George M. Whitaker, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Siemen, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Elgren, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wilkin Heinle, Mr. Lee A. Brown. Others were Dr. and Mrs. T. Myron Webb, Montrose; Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Eason, San Fernando; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Doran, San Diego, and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Wiens, Inglewood.

Lucky Willing Workers Hold Board Meeting

The Lucky Willing Workers, Inc., held a board meeting recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Diamond, 20512 S. Western ave., and it was decided to drop any fund raising plans for the month of September. A bake sale will be held in October.

Offers were made to assist the San Pedro and Redondo Beach Training centers and this will be the first such project since the organization was formed a year ago.

Interest is growing for the training of the exceptional child and very few public school systems have point two classes for these children.

Their only means of training is through parent groups that have organized and founded training centers. These centers are kept up by tuitions, individual donations and various fund raising projects, sponsored by their own groups.

This particular group was organized to give assistance to these groups or to individuals who are unable to pay tuition to training centers, as funds permit.
