

Your dollars never had it so good! Dollar Days at

The time has come to give your dollars their "self respect" back. Having a few dollars to spend during Food Giant Dollar Days is like having a monetary, atomic energy plant in your own pocketbook. Every dollar seems to jump "up and atom" and does the work that several dollars had to do previously... grocery bills are reduced to nothingness by the onslaught of your all-powerful dollars... your purchasing power is extended almost to infinity... once again your dollar is supreme! and we at Food Giant are prostrate and helpless before its unbridled prowess and might. All we ask is that you don't take too much advantage of us—please don't beat us to death with your dollars!
