LIONS CLUB PREPARES FOR WHITE CANE DAYS

Ralph Morris (l) White Cane chairman, Pete Radisch (c) president of the Lions club, and Warren Hamilton, past zone chairman, prepare for annual White Cane days which will begin tomorrow, Friday, September 27. This affair is held annually by the Lions Club, and the members will be on the streets in an effort to collect funds to aid the blind and to further sight conservation work. They will be supported by the Lionsess club. This year the Torrance Lions club has donated an Eye Magnet, for removing foreign particles from the eye, to Torrance Memorial hospital, a Braille Machine to a five year old child and furnished over 60 pairs of glasses to the needy youngsters of

Donations Asked for Homeless

St. Vincent de Paul Salvage Bureau will conduct an appeal in behalf of Miserere House, Catholic haven for forgotten men, 231 Winston St., Los Angeles, during the month of October, Rt. Rev. Msgr. James E. Dolan, director, announced yesterday.

Old furniture, clothing, newspapers, appliances and a wide variety of household articles will be collected by St. Vincent trucks throughout the Southland area.

A portion of the proceeds will go to the support of the downtown rehabilitation and recreation center for homeless, transient men, Msgr. Dolan said. Salvage donations can be made by calling Terminal 4-4533.

VOLUNTEER SPEAKERS AVAILABLE

Speakers on free services for the blind at Braille Institute of America, Los Angeles, are available to organizations hereabouts at almost any time.

Mrs. Marie McLagen, the Institute's speakers bureau chairman, says her volunteers already are addressing many civic, fraternal, women's and religious groups on educating the sightless.
