Alpha Phi's Will Hear Discussion On Grooming

South Bay Alumnae club of Alpha Phi will meet Wednesday, October 2, at 7:45 p.m. at the home of Mrs. George Moll, 2443 Sunnyside Ridge road, Rolling Hills, with Mrs. Richard Bowdye as co-hostess.

In addition to the regular business meeting, the highlight of the evening will be a talk by a new member of the group, Mrs. Louise Sooy of Redondo Beach. Until recently, Mrs. Sooy was affiliated with UCLA, having been chairman of the Art Department for ten years, and then chairman of the Apparel Major department for five years.

Although retired from the active university curriculum, Mrs. Sooy is currently teaching several university extension courses in the Los Angeles area. She is also conducting two series of ten classes in her home on Wednesdays at 2 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. This course is entitled "Art of Personal Appearance," and is open to the public.

Mrs. Sooy's topic for the Alpha Phi meeting will be "Art of Dress," in which she stresses that clothes should express the personality of the wearer, as well as present a pretty picture through the artistic use of color, accessories, fabrics, etc.

The first Fall meeting of the group was held on September 4, at the Manhattan Beach home of Mrs. Donald H. Wilson, president. New members present at this meeting were Mmes. Douglas Amsden and Gerald Barton of San Pedro; Mmes. Louise Sooy and Paul Ward of Redondo Beach; Mrs. Richard B. Fahrie of Torrance; and Miss Nancy Klinger of Manhattan Beach.

Alpha Phi alumnae in the South Bay area who are interested in affiliating may contact Mrs. George Moll.

SOLOISTS FOR HIGH HOLY DAYS

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Newman, 3305 Antonio st., will be soloists for the Jewish High Holy day services today at the San Pedro Jewish Community center.

Mrs. Newman, formerly of Chicago, was known professionally as Fay Satton. She appeared there in television, radio, opera, concert and musical comedy.

She also toured the country with the Gilbert and Sullivan Light opera company.

In this area Miss Satton is the soloist at the Christian Science church of El Segundo, and has appeared in several Accent Theatre productions.

Newman has been singing professionally as an avocation. He appeared in Faust in Chicago, and toured the country with a male quartet. He is on the staff at Bendix Computer, Inglewood.

Mrs. Nucia Satton, Chicago, Mrs. Newman's mother, has spent the summer here, and will attend High Holy services at San Pedro.

Mothers Club Plans Annual Get Together

The annual get acquainted breakfast for Serra High school mothers is scheduled for next Wednesday (Oct. 2) to be held at Torrance Municipal park, Arlington st. at 10 a.m.

All mothers of boys attending Junipero Serra High school are cordially invited to attend, according to Mrs. John Kane, chairman for the event, and mothers' club treasurer.

"Playground facilities and shelter are available for mothers who wish to bring pre-school children," she added, "with door prizes an added attraction."

The yearly project is sponsored by the Mothers' club executive board. Other members assisting Mrs. Kane are Mmes. John Ranslem, F. J. Matthews, Clint Wiley, D. R. Guyse, Harry Wieszorek, R. J. Henely, and Geo. Stromeyer.

See End of Split Day Sessions

Mrs. J. K. Edwins, president of Flavian PTA, presided at the first meeting of the 1957-58 year recently. The program, "Know your School," featured the principal, William Clary, and the introduction of the twenty member faculty.

Clary showed the new wooden plaque made by Z. W. Giza, Art Chairman, explaining it will carry the number of the room having the largest parent attendance at the PTA meeting for each month, and will hang in the office. He announced that split-day sessions should be relieved by mid term, due to the new addition under construction.

The business meeting included reports by Mrs. Chester Black, finance chairman, Mrs. John Black, ways and means chairman, Mrs. Z. W. Giza, program chairman, and G. H. Wade, treasurer. A report on the enrollment drive was given by Mrs. Fred Griffiths, third vice president.

Mrs. H. D. Truitt, tea chairman and her hostesses, the board members, served coffee and cake in the home economics room at the conclusion of the meeting.

Carr PTA Holds Staff Luncheon

The entire staff of the Evelyn Carr Elementary school was entertained at a luncheon given by the Evelyn Carr PTA executive board recently.

An invitation, written on a paper bag, was sent to each teacher, carrying out the "Share-croppers' Lunch" theme. Straw hats were sent to each teacher to wear to the luncheon.

Committee for the luncheon was Mmes. J. R. Allison, chairman, J. H. Cortez, Wendell Towell, Merle Love, Carl Johnson, Eugene Brown, Perry Baker, Jean Vance, Robert Bell and S. L. Peterson.

Setting for the teachers' luncheon was the patio of Mrs. J. R. Allison. Geraniums in pork and bean cans decorated the tables. The menu consisted of beans, salad, cake and home made ice cream which were served on paper plates. Hamburgers were wrapped in foil, tied in a bandana and attached to a hobo stick. Iced tea was served in mason jars.

PTA Board Holds First Fall Meeting

The first fall meeting of the Evelyn Carr Elementary PTA executive board was called Wednesday, Sept. 4, at the school. The new chairman were ratified by the board, and Richard Welte, principal, introduced the new vice-principal, Donald Credell.

Mrs. Ralph Gastelum read a letter from Mayor Isen concerning the bond election to be held on October 29. The program for the 1957-59 year, was discussed by Mrs. Robert Slimm, president.

Mrs. John Regan requested the Evelyn Carr PTA sponsor an adult square dance group. A committee, consisting of Mrs. Roy Jackson, chairman, Mrs. John Maxwell and Mrs. Norma Wilson, was appointed to study the matter.

Announcements were made to the effect that there will be a Council workshop held on Sept. 10, at the North High school. Coffee and cookies will be served to kindergarten mothers the first two days of school. Hostesses are needed for this. A report on the Dental Health association was given by Mr. Eugene Brown.

DANCE GROUP STARTS SEASON

The square dance group of Homer Morgan's "The Squabblers," started the fall season last Wednesday evening with an old fashioned pot luck dinner and square dance.

Members present were Messrs. and Mmes. Frank Bowes, Bill Ewing, Joe Hardin, Dave Jones, Odie McNight, Eddie Long, Bill Shanklin, Joe Silveria, Jim Struberg, Al Sibley and Foy Carpenter.

New members welcomed were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Morrisseau and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Sprague.

A special welcome was extended to Helen Carpenter who attended for the first time since her recovery from an automobile accident.

259th Place PTA Plans Faculty Tea

Now is the Time is the program theme for the coming year for the 259th Place school PTA. At a recent board meeting the programs were outlined and approved.

The first association meeting on October 8 in which Miss Frances Dastarac, principal, will introduce the faculty and parents will have an opportunity to meet the teachers during tea.

In November a patriotic theme is planned and the mother singers will entertain. A pageant by the third grade students will be given on the December meeting, and in March a fashion show by the mothers and faculty is planned.

GIRL SCOUTS TO MEET IN LOCAL PARK

The North Torrance association of Girl Scouts will hold their Juliette Low Ingathering day Saturday, September 28, in Torrance Park at 10 a.m.

The morning activities include games and races with a nose-bag lunch at noon. After lunch, Brownie and Girl Scout troops from the area will present a program based on the theme "Rhythm Around the World." Countries represented with a dance, song or skit will be Mexico, Germany, Spain, Greece and Japan. The troops will make donations to the Juliette Low World Friendship fund.

The Junior planning board has charge of arrangements for this day.
