Under sponsorship of Southern California Bowling Prop. Association, the annual Women's All Star Elimination and Match Play Singles Tournament gets under way at the South Bay Bowling Center at 7:30 p.m., October 6, it was announced today.

General Manager Pete Spilos reports that every top flight woman bowler in this area is expected to participate, with elimination play scheduled for October 6 and 13. Finals will be rolled on October 20 and 27. Ten games will be rolled each night of the competition, with the 10 highest scorers during the elimination meeting in "head and head" match play the two final sessions. The Peterson Point scoring system will be used to determine the ultimate winners, with the four leaders of the finalists being scheduled to represent this area in the National Match Tournament in the East.

Entries to date include Doris Porter, National runner-up in 1956; Dottie Crouch, winner of last year's eliminations; Robbie Shaler, recently named "Woman Bowler of the Year" by the Southern California Bowling Magazine; Merle Matthews, "All Star Winner," named on every all star team ever selected by local writers, Chiyu Tashima, all time great Nisei bowler, and many others who have won fame in tough competition. Bowling fans are invited to see these fine matches every Sunday night during October; no admission charge will be made for this event.

RECORD NEWS

The Mills Brothers have cut a new long play album—One Dozen Roses. It contains such old favorites as Roses of Picardy, My Wild Irish Rose and Moonlight and Rose. This should be a good seller. This is the first time the Mills Brothers have been recorded with strings. A real treat!

Imperial has a new dish done by the Prudhomme Twins—I Don't Need A D.J.ary. This should be a hit with the teenagers—if it doesn't get lost in the crowd. On the flip side, Earthly Heaven.

De Luxe has a good one that should go with the rock-and-roll fans, and anyone else who enjoys the beat, called Talking to Myself. Nineteen year-old Otis Williams and his group, the Charms, knows how to put over this type of music, as proved by his past smash hits.

Another good Rock-and-Roll number by De Luxe Rock'n Roll Jungle, was waxed by Benson-Gains-Willis, with vocal by Joe Benson.
