Preparing for Grand National Bake-off

Doug Proffitt, manager of Clark's Market, Hawthorne Blvd., and Highway 101, helps Mrs. Charles Colstad, 1 Fig Tree rd., Portuguese Bend (L), and Mrs. Anna Kendrick, 24240 Neece ave., collect supplies for Pillsbury's 9th Annual Grand National Bake-off contest in which they will compete in. The contest will be held at the Beverly Hilton hotel on October 14, and 100 women from across the nation will participate. Proffitt announced that this is the first time in the history of the Bake-off that two finalists have shopped at the same market, and that if either woman wins first or second prize, Clark's market will give her $1500 in groceries.

The Torrance Junior Chamber of Commerce appointed Dr. A. A. Rauch, local Chiropractor, as the Voice of Democracy Chairman. The Voice of Democracy is a contest for high school students sponsored annually by the Junior Chamber of Commerce and the National Broadcasting Company with the cooperation of the local school district.

YMCA Breakfast Set For Saturday

With over 2000 people expected at the Annual YMCA Breakfast, it is necessary to start mixing up the "vittles" far in advance. Doug Cannon, YMCA Secretary and Ronnie Dutton, YMCA boy have already started the enormous task of mixing gallons of pancake batter, frying 400 pounds of sausage, brewing thousands of cups of coffee and squeezing millions of oranges for the tempting breakfasts that will be served at the Civic Auditorium, Saturday, October 12, from 6 a.m. until 11:30 a.m.

Ralph Morris, YMCA Breakfast Chairman, states there will be well over 2000 Torrance citizens in attendance Saturday to eat breakfast, listen to the two hours of music by the Torrance Area Youth band, honor the citizen who receive the YMCA Good Neighbor award for 1957, and enjoy the pleasure of meeting hundreds of friends united in helping the YMCA to do its good work.

A beautiful portable television set will be given as a door prize, and other fine gifts for lucky persons in attendance. Hundreds of YMCA boys are selling breakfast tickets to families throughout the city.

The latest fine addition to the excellent entertainment planned for the affair is the "Steelettes," the Carl Steele School PTA Mothersingers. They will join many other individuals and groups who have volunteered to provide entertainment for the "biggest breakfast in Torrance."

Ralph Morris pointed out that since all goods have been donated by local markets, all proceeds go toward support of YMCA youth work here in Torrance. He urged everyone to join their good neighbors for a wonderful breakfast that will give a real boost to the local youth organization.
