Lovely Torrance Lass To Reign On Air Force Day

Pert, 17-year-old Jackie Leko of Torrance was selected "Miss Air Force" of 1957 Saturday night at the Stadium Theater.

Jackie, an auburn-haired, blue-green eyed beauty, is 5 feet 4 inches tall and weighs 110 pounds.

The Torrance miss will reign over the city's Salute to the Air Force in commemoration of the Air Arm's "Golden Anniversary of Air Power," October 14-18, according to sponsoring Chamber of Commerce officials.

A series of appearances at Southland Air Force bases and on television programs has been arranged.

Seventeen teenage lovelies were in the contest, representing Hawthorne, Lawndale, San Pedro, Hermosa Beach, Redondo Beach, Lomita, and Torrance. Finalists in addition to Miss Leko, were Rita Kay Perry (17) of Hawthorne and Kathy Kirks of Torrance.

The new "Miss Air Force" was presented a trophy by the Chamber of Commerce and will receive a gold airplane model from Air Force officials at the "Air Power" banquet at Ricks Restaurant on Thursday, October 17. Presentation of awards was made by the famed Korean War hero, Col. Dean Hess, who headed a judging panel of five Air Force officers. Chamber Manager Dick Fitzgerald acted as master of ceremonies.
