'NIGHT IN LAS VEGAS' PLANNED BY SORORITY

The Eta Kappa chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority begins the traditional fall rushing for new members with an informal party Friday, October 11, 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Robert Holmes, 1513 W. 179th pl.

This social activity has been planned as a "Night In Las Vegas" party. The theme and motif will be carried out in the games and decor. The guests and members were extended invitations in the form of a map of Nevada with Las Vegas pointed out with a bright new penny.

Mrs. Holmes front room and dining room will be transformed into a club with a sign labeled "Welcome to ESA Club." Hostesses will be dressed as croupiers to welcome the guests. Mrs. Kenneth McVey is rush captain, assisted by the social committee. Mrs. Holmes, chairman, Mrs. Kenneth White, Mrs. Louis Verne.

The group met recently to make plans for the coming year. Among the philanthropic projects chosen were adopting a child to sponsor at the Spadra Children's home. To continue

Navy Theme for Halldale PTA Drive

"Join Our Crew - Anchors Away for the PTA" is Halldale avenue's theme for the forthcoming PTA membership drive, October 7 to 11.

Last year Halldale arehuc PTA had a membership of 835. This year membership should go over this mark because of an increase in school enrollment and a special emphasis on Fathers joining the PTA.

"Achievement through Community Service" is the topic for the next meeting to be held at 1:30 p.m. in the school auditorium. Lois Graham, a teacher at Halldale, will sing. Mrs. Judson Bowers, membership chairman, will give the results on the membership drive. Mrs. Frank Bowling Jr., president, extends a hearty welcome to all to attend.

Bazaar-Party Scheduled by Torrance R.N.

In the absence of Oracle Susie Walker, Vice Oracle Priscilla Young presided at the regular meeting of the Torrance Camp Royal Neighbors of America held recently at the Woman's Club on Engracla. A class of four candidates was initiated.

Deputy Elizabeth Gaston was an honored guest. Guests from Redondo Beach and Gardena camps also attended the meeting.

The Torrance Camp and the Friendship Sewing Circle will hold a bazaar and baked food sale the afternoon and evening of October 22.

A public card party will be held the evening of October 22. Neighbor Alice Swanson is chairman for this party, and has arranged for suitable prizes for the various games. Refreshments will be served. The public is invited.

The fifth Tuesday in October at 6 p.m. the camp will hold a pot luck dinner. The meat course will be furnished by the Camp. Members will bring other items on the menu. At 8 p.m. McDaniels orchestra will furnish music for social dancing. Members and their friends may come in Halloween costume. Vice Oracle Young is chairman for the evening.

Junior Garden Club Sees Film
