

SECOND FILM FOR EXPECTANT PARENTS

The second film showing a film which previews maternity hospital routine will be shown, Dr. B. A. Kogan, District Health Officer has announced. The classes convene every Thursday at 1 p.m., and prospective parents are invited. There is no fee as the classes are an educational service of Los Angeles County Health Department.

Today is a good day if you make it that way.—Donald Crisp.

PAIR EXCHANGE VOWS IN METHODIST CHURCH

Billie Jo Pratt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Terrance R. Burns, 2315 Carson st., became the bride of Charles F. Bright, son of Mrs. W. A. Bright, Sweetwater, Tenn., on October 5, 7:30 p.m., at the First Methodist church.

Rev. Donald Shelby officiated at the service and the bride was given in marriage by an uncle, H. W. Taylor who flew here from Williamstown, W. Va. Her father is with the US Navy, stationed in Japan. For her marriage the bride chose a Chantilly lace over satin gown. The fitted bodice had long pointed sleeves and a Mandarin collar effect, and the bouffant skirt was ballerina length. Her veil was held secure by a tiara of seed pearls, and she carried a bouquet of white carnations and orchids on a white bible, which was a gift from the bridegroom.

Golda Morrison was matron of honor and Linda De Field was bridesmaid. Bobby Bright, brother of the groom, who flew here from Sweetwater, Tenn., for the ceremony, was best man. Henry De Fields and Leo Martin seated the guests.

A reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. De Fields, 1411 Crenshaw blvd., and the couple left immediately afterwards for a honeymoon trip to Palm Springs. The bride graduated from Torrance High school and El Camino. The bridegroom attended school in Tennessee and served over five years in the Navy.

The couple will reside in Lomita.

Hear Panel Discussion

The first meeting of the 186th Street school PTA for the 1957-58 year, was held recently. Mrs. James Ellis, president, greeted the members of the association and Miss Ruth Engdahl, principal, introduced the eight new faculty members including an exchange teacher from Hawaii.

Recommendations to approve the program presented by Mrs. Walter Stewart; and to approve the budget presented by Mrs. Billie Lewis, treasurer, were accepted. Also it was decided to contribute to the Exceptional Children's Fund, and co-operate with the Gardena Clearing House on Christmas welfare.

A panel of faculty members, moderated by DeLoey Stromme, 5th grade teacher, spoke on the subject "The New Course of Study." Panel members were Mrs. Marlene Zusman, Mrs. Ila Brunson, Mrs. Lilla Boyer, and Miss Maryann Ramberg.

A tea and social hour followed the meeting, with the executive board members acting as hostesses. Coffee, tea and apple pie were served as refreshments.

Y-WIVES PROGRAM

On Wednesday, October 23, at 9:30 a.m. Y-Wives will have the regularly scheduled program of exercises and dancing directed by Mrs. Gladys Nauman, followed by a demonstration on ribbon tying by Mrs. E. Westcombe. A nursery is provided for the children. Anyone interested may call the YWCA.

GUILD-TO MEET

The basic principles of conducting will be discussed by Vernon Robinson, conductor of the San Gabriel Civic Symphony Orchestra, when the California Chapter of the Accordion Teachers Guild meets in Hollywood at 6612 Santa Monica blvd. at 1:30 Sunday afternoon, announces Bettie Thomas, 1215 Crenshaw blvd.

BRIDGE CLUB MEETS

Mmes. Burt Easley, Phyllis Klink, Rod Norris, Earl Clayton, Robert Clayton, Walter Levy, R. R. Dexter and Parke Montague were guests of Mrs. William Patterson when their bridge club met recently. High score was held by Mrs. Walter Levy, R. R. Dexter and Mrs. Parke Montague holding second and third places respectively.
