Thomas Studio Becomes City Ticket Agency

The mutual ticket agency maintained in the Torrance Chamber of Commerce Office will be transferred to Bettie Thomas Studio, 1215 Crenshaw blvd. effective today.

In making the announcement, Chamber President A. E. Thompson stated that the authorized Mutual Branch Office is a non-profit venture and was sponsored originally eight months ago purely as a public service offering Torrance residents tickets for all leading Los Angeles attractions.

Thompson added that the Chamber was only "filling in" until a responsible retailer would be located to replace them. Bettie Thomas Studio has been in business in Torrance for over 20 years. The owner, Bettie Thomas, is a daughter of pioneer industrialist Frank Dalton of D & M

Machine Co. They are members of the Chamber.

Tickets can be obtained under same rules and regulations as have been enforced in the past; no extra charge and at regular box office prices. Hours in which the new non-profit agency will be open for business are Monday through Saturday, 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.
