Mardi Gras Time is Here

Friday night October 25 is the night! It's Mardi Gras time at the 259th Place school. This is a fund raising project of the 259th Place PTA.

The doll booth is a must for all mothers and daughters. Homemade candies, cookies, cakes and pies are to be featured in the country store. In bungalow 24, along with toys, jewelry, white elephants, aprons, pot holders, and many other items.

Another attraction for children will be movies of Mighty Mouse and Our Gang shown in the auditorium at 6:30 and 7:15 p.m. There'll be hot dogs, pop corn, cotton candy, snow cones and punch available throughout the evening at the booths.

Tomorrow night would be an excellent night to take the family out for a spaghetti dinner. Later on the whole family can have an evening of fun right on the school grounds and at the same time help the PTA with its worth while welfare projects.

HARVEST O' FUN PLANNED BY PTA

The Flavian ways and means committee met recently in the home of Mrs. John Black, ways and means chairman, to make final plans for the forthcoming Harvest O' Fun.

The Harvest O' Fun will be held in the school on Halloween night, October 31 from 6 to 9 p.m.

There will be many entertaining booths, with the usual cakes, candies and homemade jams and jellies displayed in the country store as well as home-made sewn articles.

Hot dogs, soft drinks and coffee will be sold also. Flavian PTA invites all to come and have a good time on Halloween night at their Harvest O' Fun.

'SPOOKS AND SPIRITS' TO REIGN AT TEMPLE

All the ghosts and goblins in the South Bay Area will reign supreme at Temple Menorah Sisterhood's "Spook and Spirits" costume party and dance at 112 N. Catalina, Redondo Beach on Saturday night, November 2, 8:30 p.m.

Guests will be entertained by Phillip Yetra, magician and comedian.

Entertainment will be provided by Marcy and Mel Schumacher, Sydney Siegel and Jack Hodges. Other feature attractions of the evening, will be dancing, games and the awarding of prizes for the best costumes, and a midnight snack.

Co-chairmen of the affair are Mrs. Marvin Forman and Robert Lewis. Advisor is Mrs. Jack Belford, chairman of Sisterhood's ways and means committee.

Committees assisting the chairmen are Mrs. Byron Jutovsky, Joseph Cohen, Albert Carmona, Malcolm Richland, Joseph Eskenazi, Bernard Deutch, David Tanner and Harold Greenband, food; Mrs. Seymour Uberman, Norman Lumin, Milford Sussman and Gene Kaufman, decorations; Jack Belford and Harold Greenband, refreshments; Mrs. Melvin Schumacher, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Siegel and Mrs. J. Bernard Elve, entertainment.

The affair is sponsored by the Sisterhood as a fund-raising project from which the funds raised will go towards the support of the Temple's Religious School.

'Hillbilly Night' at Sepulveda

Following a brief business meeting, the Sepulveda PTA audience was entertained with the two one-act comedy skits presented by the Vagabond Players of South Bay, "I'm a Hurrying," a hillbilly play, and a sophisticated comedy, "Pore ole Jim."

The cast, under the direction of Andy Lamb, included Jack Taylor, Wanda Laurence and Ronald Mariott.

Baked lima beans, hot corn bread and coffee was served to the PTA group following the plays. Amusing table decorations, in keeping with the "hillbilly" theme of the evening, complimented the food.

Also included in the PTA program was a speech given by Miss Flora Watson, representing the Community Chest of Torrance.

'HARVEST FESTIVAL'

"Harvest Festival" is the theme of the annual Meadow Park PTA carnival to be held October 26, from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. at the school.

Costumes will be much in evidence as a parade with band and judges will be held at 2:30 p.m. The mothers in the booths will also wear costumes while they sell refreshments and help the children in various games. Trophies will be awarded by the fathers to the winners of the football kicking contest beginning at 11 a.m. All boys are urged by Vice Principal, R. Brown to sign up for this contest.

The special attraction in the cafeteria will be a popular television personality and her talking doll. She will entertain parents and children alike with three shows beginning at 12:30 p.m.

Mrs. J. T. Anagnost, president, extends a cordial invitation to all parents and friends of Meadow Park to bring your family and join in the fun.

CHAIRMAN REPORTS

Mrs. M. J. Unger Jr., membership chairman for Seaside PTA, has announced that for the third consecutive year, the school has 100 per cent membership.

Seaside now has 1232 paid memberships. The school staff also has 100 per cent.

PLAN BAKE SALE

Mrs. Leo Levanas, Riviera School PTA, is still accepting pledges of baked goods for the Cake and Pie Sale on November 1.

Torrance Art Group Will Meet on Friday Evening

MRS. M. R. SEIDLER (l), president of Torrance Art Group, Mrs. B. F. Townsend (c), recording secretary, and Mrs. Dale Sutton, corresponding secretary, look at still life painting by Mrs. Sutton. The group is making plans for the next meeting which will be held on Friday evening, October 25, at the home of Dr. Arthur Schneider, artist-muralist, 1223 Loma dr., Hermosa Beach.—Press Photo

For the next meeting on Friday evening, October 25, the Art Group plans a visit to the studio-home of Dr. Arthur Schneider, artist-muralist, 1223 Loma dr., Hermosa Beach.

His very wide and varied background in art should make for a very interesting and informative evening. This includes a master's degree in art and anthropology at the University of New Mexico, a doctor's degree in education and art at the University of California at Berkeley; murals painted in Mexico, New York, New Jersey, Georgia, Pennsylvania; paintings exhibited in numerous east-coast exhibitions; one-man exhibitions given at Lehigh, Oklahoma and New Mexico universities. At present, Dr. Schneider teaches art and social studies in the Lawndale School District.

its program of informal discussions on art in members homes. Coffee and constructive criticism of members new artwork round out the evening. Newcomers to the Torrance area who are interested in art, and would like to participate with the Torrance Art Group, can call Mrs. Roy Seidler for information.

Remember the maxim you can't hit the bullseye by shooting the bull. — Augusta (Kan.) Daily Gazette.

STUDENTS FROM OTHER LANDS

The theme of the Flavian PTA meeting last Thursday night was "Students From Other Lands."

The guest speaker was Kyoshi Hasegawa, a Japanese student at USC. Hasegawa spoke of his country's education system and of the contrasts between the two countries. He enchanted his audience with the art of paper folding, and explained that all children in Japan learn to do it at a very early age.

Dress Parade On Saturday

Sepulveda Elementary School's first carnival which will be held Saturday, Oct. 26 between 1 and 7 p.m. will feature as one of its highlights, a Halloween dress parade beginning at 3 p.m. on the school grounds. Prizes will be awarded to children for the prettiest, funniest and most original costumes worn.

Among the many interesting booths planned for the event, will be a Country Store featuring such wares as homemade candies, preserves, house plants and White elephant articles, Mrs. John Cariveau, chairman for the carnival, has announced.

Besides the hot dogs, hamburgers, popcorn and pop which will be available throughout the carnival, plans have been made to serve a spaghetti dinner from 5 to 7 p.m., Mrs. Albert Yackie, food chairman reported.

Edith Simpelaar has been appointed Director of Women's and Girls' activities with the Recreation Department. She was YWCA Program Director at the Torrance Branch from March 1956 to October 1957, and was teen age Program Director at the YWCA in Hamilton, Ohio.—Press Photo
